

The Mann Medal in Ethics and Leadership

2012 Nomination Form

The Mann Medal is awarded by Samford University to recognize achievements that have contributed to a more just and ethical world. A nominee may be an individual, group or organization from any field of practice. The final selection will be made in consultation with university leaders and scholars from relevant disciplines.

SELECTION CRITERIA

The Mann Medal recognizes specific achievements, which must be documented by the nominator. Unlike awards that honor the personal characteristics of honorees, the Mann Medal is intended to call attention to good work that may be an inspiration to others. Following are several key considerations in selecting honorees:

- The work recognized with this award must address a clear need or problem facing society.
- The results achieved by this work must have significance on a large scale.
- The work must be an inspiring example for others to follow.

THE MEDAL

Designed by world-renowned artist Malcolm Grear, the Mann Medal bears the “Sheaf of Grain” emblem of the Frances Marlin Mann Center for Ethics and Leadership, symbolizing of the need for leadership that cultivates a better world. One medalist each year is honored at a special event in Birmingham, AL, and invited to speak to an audience of university constituencies and community leaders.
