

SAMFORD IN GREECE January 5-20, 2006

EXPECTATIONS

Commitment: If your application for Samford in Greece 2006 is accepted, your deposit of $300 is a non-refundable commitment to attend the program. We will buy plane tickets, make travel arrangements, and adjust faculty schedules based on that commitment. Please be prepared to follow through.

Academic: Samford in Greece 2006 is an academic course that will far surpass any regular tour of Greece precisely because you will know what you are looking at, thanks to your reading, your fellow students, your faculty, and your Greek guides. Your academic performance will be evaluated both for your preparation and for your participation.

- 3 ACADEMIC MEETINGS IN FALL 2005 (15%)
- ACADEMIC WORK DUE IN FALL 2005
 - Self-Paced Reading Quizzes on WebCT (10%)
 - Written, Footnoted version of Oral Presentation (10%)
- ACADEMIC WORK IN GREECE
 - Participation (10%)
 - Oral Presentation on site (15%)
 - Academic Journal (15%)
 - Final Exam (25%)

Travel: You are traveling to a land that is not your own, so we expect you to commit to the highest standards of courtesy, to the people of Greece, to your faculty, and to your fellow students.

- PASSPORT: Acquired/Renewed
 - First Week of Class
 - Photocopy of Passport
 - Samford Travel Forms
- FLIGHTS
 - Trip cost covers plane ticket
 - Flight originates in Birmingham
 - Other cities of departure can be arranged
 - Resulting changes in ticket cost will be added to or deducted from Program Fee
 - Student must notify faculty by first week of September
 - Students who wish to use Frequent Flyer tickets or similar must make their own flight arrangements
 - The flight cost will be deducted from your Program Fee
 - The flight must arrive by 10AM Tues 6 Jan and depart Fri 20 Jan
 - Student must notify faculty by first week of September