

"HΛΛΑΣ... that means 'Greece'

<http://www.samford.edu/schools/artsci/classics/Greece.htm>

*When he had gone through those regions and had given them much encouragement, he came to Greece
—Acts 20:2*

Friday April 29, 2005: Application
Friday May 13, 2005: $300 Deposit
Program Fee: $3000
Tuition: $1922

Course Credit:
4.0 CLAS 303

Greece: the Crucible of Civilization
Gen-Ed Humanities Credit
Upper-Level Credit (10 needed)

Contact: Doug Clapp
209 Brooks Hall
x4234
dclapp@samford.edu

*Know Thyself
—Oracle at Delphi*

After this, Paul left Athens and went to Corinth...—Acts 18:1

*Therefore, when we could no longer bear it, we were willing to be left behind at Athens
—1 Thessalonians 3:1*

*A traveller at Sparta, standing long upon one leg, said to a Lacedaemonian, "I do not believe you can do as much." "True," said he,
"but every goose can."
—Plutarch*

*The mention of Greece fills the mind with the most exalted sentiments and arouses in our bosoms the best feelings of which our nature is capable.—
President James Monroe, message to Congress, 1822*

Samford in Greece: Jan-Term 2006

Samford University is subsidizing this program through the Office of the Provost.