

American Journal of Trial Advocacy
THIRD SEMESTER WRITING PROGRAM SCHEDULE - 2008

- Thursday, January 17
11:30 a.m.
Journal Office (rm 301)
- Information Meeting & Distribution of Writing Packets. The Student Materials Editor will present basic information about the Writing Program, answer questions, and distribute writing packets. Research & Writing Editors will distribute Bluebook exams and answer questions.
- January 17 - February 1
- Writing Period. Candidates have two weeks to complete the Bluebook exam and to research and write a Recent Development as defined by the Candidates Manual. Student Materials Editors will be available to answer general questions.
- Tuesday, January 22
12:00 noon
- Optional Bluebook Exam Return Date. Candidates who wish to have their exams corrected early in order to benefit from it before finishing their papers must return their completed exams to the Journal secretary no later than this time. Graded exams may be picked up from the secretary after 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, January 23.
- Friday, February 1
11:00 a.m.
- Papers Due. Completed papers and exams (not turned in early) are due in the Journal office, Room 301, at or before this time.
- Monday, February 4
10:00 a.m.
- Announcement of New Members. Letters will be delivered to each candidate's Cumberland student box. Candidates who submit passing papers and Bluebook exams will be offered membership.
- Thursday, February 7
11:00 a.m.
- Luncheon Welcoming New Members. The Journal members invite all new members to a luncheon in the office in their honor.
- Friday, February 8
1:00-3:00 pm
- MANDATORY New Member Training. New members are required to attend a training session to receive their membership manual and instruction.