C. Murray and Sybil C. Frizzelle Memorial Endowed Scholarship

Description and Eligibility

The C. Murray and Sybil C. Frizzelle Memorial Scholarship was endowed to provide financial assistance to worthy or needy Samford students who are either (1) descendants of C. Murray and Sybil C. Frizzelle or (2) whose undergraduate course of study at Samford is preparing them for missions (particularly language missions), teaching or service-oriented careers.

Recipients will be selected by the Scholarship and Awards Committee in the Department of World Languages and Cultures from the following categories, listed in priority order:

1. Descendants first, then nieces and nephews and their descendants of C. Murray and Sybil C. Frizzelle
2. Students participating in language missions or service projects through the Department of World Languages and Cultures;
3. Students majoring or minoring in World Languages who are preparing for missions, teaching or service-oriented careers; or
4. Students majoring in any other area of Arts and Sciences, with a preference for those preparing for missions, teaching or other service-oriented careers.

Addenda:

- Descendants of C. Murray and Sybil C. Frizzelle may apply for this scholarship directly with the Financial Aid Office at Samford without recommendation from the WLAC Scholarship and Awards Committee.
- Students whose tuition costs are defrayed by Samford’s Employee Tuition Benefit (ETB) plan are not eligible to apply for the Frizzelle Scholarship.
- The minimum overall student GPA required to apply is 2.5.
- Recipients of the Frizzelle Award shall be selected by the Scholarship and Awards Committee of the World Languages Department at Samford. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Award amounts will be placed in the student recipient’s account.
