Open World Delegates from Ukraine Visit Cumberland to Learn About Democratic Government

On Wednesday, April 15, Cumberland played host to a group of Open World delegates from Ukraine. The Open World program sponsored by the Library of Congress brings professionals and civic leaders from former Soviet bloc countries to the United States to learn skills of democratic government and civil society. The delegation consisted of three lawyers who work for the city council, the director of a legal aid clinic, and a court administrator – all from Vinnytsia, Birmingham’s Sister City in central Ukraine. Alan Stevens, Director of the Alabama Center for Law and Civic Education, professors Cassandra Adams, Mike Floyd, Brad Bishop, and Joseph Snoe all made presentations directed toward the professional interests of the group. In addition, staff of Jefferson County Family Court provided “hands on” advice. Noah Jones from Alabama Arise spoke during lunch. Dean Strickland greeted the delegation. Bob Greene, who has taught in Ukraine, arranged for the visit. Ken England, Kathy Walton, Laura Taylor, Tracy Luke, Grace Simms and Erin Carroll arranged for the guests to have a very productive day.

This Week’s Events

Complete Evaluations to Participate in Jam Before Exams

The law school will conduct course and faculty evaluations April 13 through April 29, the day prior to exams. Having students complete these evaluations each semester is critically important to the law school. Faculty use the evaluations to improve their classes and to identify problems that require action. All students are encouraged to take a few minutes to complete evaluations for each of their courses.

Students have received an emailed invitation for each class in which they are enrolled, requesting that they click a link in the email to evaluate a particular course and professor. There will not be a link on the website that will connect the students to their course evaluations. Student responses are entirely confidential, as there is no way to identify the author of any submitted evaluation.

As an incentive/reward, all students in classes that achieved a 75% response rate by noon on April 20 will be eligible for a pizza party to be held on the East (Angel) Patio at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, April 23. Email Ms. Nelson or stop by Student Services if you have any questions or concerns.

Jam Before Exams

Just a Few Cats, the group that played during the Rascal Day parade, will be on campus on Thursday, April 23 to play music at the East (Angel) Patio. Music will begin at 11:00 a.m.

Last Chance to Attend Bar Exam Preparation Meeting

Attendance at One Meeting is Mandatory for 3Ls

Cumberland is holding a series of four identical meetings about the bar exam over the next few weeks. The meetings will provide information on and an opportunity to ask questions about the bar exam, bar exam preparation, and related topics. The final meeting will be held at the following time and will last approximately 30 minutes:

- Wednesday, April 22 at 8:30 a.m. in Room 115.

All third-year students are required to attend one of these meetings (though first and second year students are welcome to attend).

Vote in SBA elections

The election for the 2L SBA Representatives and 3L Honor Court Justices will be held Thursday, April 23. Polls will open at 9:00 a.m. and close at 4:00 p.m.
Professor Woodrow Hartzog, along with Evan Selinger, participated in an interview with FTC Commissioner Julie Brill on the right to obscurity. The interview is online at The Christian Science Monitor's Passcode.

Professor Hartzog was recently quoted in Vice's Motherboard on a story titled “The Sheer Difficulty of Defining What a Robot Is.”

On Tuesday, April 14, Professor Bob Greene presented a talk on Water Law in the United States to the New Horizons group at UAB. New Horizons is a program for retired folk (including a number of Samford faculty) who attend lectures and presentations on a year round schedule.

Students and faculty are invited to attend alumni receptions and luncheons. For students, these are good networking events for those with aspirations to work in a specific location. To confirm your attendance and for full details, please contact Anne Marovich, director of alumni relations, at amarovic@samford.edu.

On Monday April 13, the Black Law Students Association of South Carolina School of Law and Charleston School of Law challenged their entire state to participate in a silent protest, in response to Walter Scott, an unarmed African American male, being shot dead after a routine traffic stop. The silent protest simply consisted of students, faculty, and staff wearing a green shirt with a name tag that said “I am Walter Scott” or signs that say this phrase.

On April 15, Cumberland faculty, staff, and students joined together to raise awareness during their own Silent Protest organized by Hilaire Armstrong a Cumberland 2L. Several people participated to stand up and say “All Lives Matter!”
