A Note from the Dean

I hope you all had a pleasant and meaningful holiday. Having been in the building during the break, I am glad you are back on campus to bring the building back to life. I look forward to the rooms and hallways being full with classes, meetings, trial and ADR team practices, and of course study.

The last two weeks were sad ones for the Cumberland family as we lost two of our greatest. J. Anthony (Tony) McLain passed away on January 1, and Governor Albert Brewer died on January 2. Their many accomplishments are outlined in numerous tributes published and posted during the last two weeks. Both men were extraordinary lawyers and models of professionalism, civility, responsibility, and service. They both loved Cumberland and served the school tirelessly.

Among the email exchanges in which we mourned the loss of these dear friends and great servant leaders, one Cumberland alumnus said “It is now up to us to pick-up where these two Godly men left off.” One of the great benefits of living on an academic calendar is that we have the luxury of starting over every semester. As we do so this year, may we all strive to pick-up where Tony and Governor Brewer left off — in terms of integrity, civility, kindness, and selfless service.

Trial Advocacy Board Hosts 1L ADR Competition

The Trial Advocacy Board, with the help of Professor LaJuana Davis, hosted the first annual 1L Alternative Dispute Resolution Competition during the mini-term. The competition was broken into a Client Counseling portion and a Negotiation portion. Each session allowed 1L competitors to apply what they have learned from class to their first exposure to ADR in a competitive setting. The winners are as follows:

Client Counseling:
- Team Jacob Snow and Stephanie Gushlaw and Team David Hamm and Brooke DiSalvo tied for first place.
- Team Emily Hopper and J.R. Thomas came in second place.

Negotiation:
- Team Caleb Faulkner and Kacey Cooper took first place.
- Team Stephen Alsleben and Lisa Cagle took second place.

Cumberland Community Mourns Loss of Brewer and McLain

J. Anthony “Tony” McLain ('77), longtime Alabama State Bar General Counsel, passed away on Jan. 1. He served as president of Cumberland's National Alumni Association and was the recipient of the school's distinguished alumnus award.

Albert Brewer, former Alabama governor, Cumberland law professor, and founder of the Public Affairs Research Council of Alabama (PARCA), died Jan. 2.

“Cumberland School of Law and the state of Alabama have lost two of their greatest,” said Dean Henry C. “Corky” Strickland, III. “Beyond these giants’ great accomplishments, they were both among the kindest and most caring men I ever knew. We will miss them dearly.”

England Accepts Position in New York

Ken England, Assistant Dean for Administration, recently accepted a position as Vice President of Administrative Services at Corning Community College in New York. His last day will be January 13, 2017. Although Ken will be deeply missed, his new position represents a significant promotion with exciting career opportunities. Please congratulate Ken on his ongoing success!

Faculty Notes

On December 1, 2016, Assistant Dean Cassandra Adams was the opening plenary speaker at the 2016 Fulbright Scholar Regional Seminar, held in Montgomery, AL. Her topic, “Visions of the New South Realized,” was well received by the group of more than 80 Fulbright Scholars studying in the US from all over the world.

Professor Alyssa DiRusso presented as part of the Trusts and Estates panel at the annual meeting of the Association of American Law Schools in San Francisco on Thursday, January 5. Her presentation was based on her recent publication, “The Generation-Skipping Transfer Tax and Sociological Shifts in Generational Length: Proposing a Generation-Inflation Index for Taxation,” 41 ACTEC L. J. 307 (Fall 2015/Winter 2016). Professor DiRusso served as Chair of the AALS Section on Trusts and Estates through the end of the annual meeting and now serves on its executive committee.
