This Week’s Events

SUPPLY DRIVE FOR ANIMAL VICTIMS OF HURRICANE HARVEY

- Large metal food bowls
- Medium and large collars
- Leashes
- Dog food
- Toys
- Fleece blankets
- Large dog crates
- Jumbo and gallon-sized Ziplock bags
- Rolled newspapers
- Cleaning Supplies
- Office supplies

GBHS has an Amazon Wishlist! If you go through Amazon Smile a portion of the sales tax will be donated to the shelter.

COLLECTION BIN IS IN THE BREEZEWAY NOW THROUGH OCTOBER 20TH

---

The North Carolina Student Bar Association will have an interest meeting on September 21st, at 4:30 pm in room 118.

Snacks will be provided!

Contact Elizabeth Rand for questions at erand@samford.edu

---

Students are invited to attend the Friday, September 22nd “Developments and Trends in Health Care Law” seminar which will be held at the Birmingham Marriott. If you are interested in practicing Health Law, the seminar is a good opportunity to network with attorneys who practice in the area. To confirm your attendance, please contact Karen Larsen (klarsen@samford.edu) in the office of Continuing Legal Education.
Plan Ahead

Cumberland’s Public Interest & Community Service organization will be hosting a dodgeball tournament on Thursday, September 28th from 4-9 pm in the Bashinsky gym. The tournament will raise money to fund a Cumberland Summer Public Interest Fellowship and our annual Christmas drive, which provides gifts for children under the care of Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA). The tournament is open to all students, faculty and staff members of Samford’s graduate schools. To register, email CPICS at cpics@samford.edu.

Students are invited to attend the 5th Annual Veterans Disability Symposium on Friday, November 3, 2017 in Birmingham, Alabama.

This year’s theme is “The Invisible Wounds of War: The Unseen Moral, Mental, and Physical Injuries Challenging Today’s Veteran.” The Symposium will be held at the Lakeshore Foundation Conference Center, and is co-sponsored by The Deep South Center for Occupational Health & Safety at the University of Alabama at Birmingham, The University of Alabama — School of Social Work, and Friedman Law Firm, P.C.

The Symposium will be kicked off by Dr. Stuart Hoffman, Scientific Program Manager, VA/ORD Rehabilitation Research and Development Service.

A distinguished faculty, many of whom are Veterans themselves, will participate in panel discussions on Traumatic Brain Injury, Moral Injury, and Veterans Reintegration.

Please click on this link to see details on all the speakers and to register your attendance: http://www.soph.uab.edu/dsc/disability-veterans-symposium_2017

The Symposium will include a continental breakfast and lunch at the venue.

The Women Lawyers Section of the Birmingham Bar & Alabama State Bar presents

PATH TO SUCCESS:
Transitioning from Law Student to Laywer

2017

Tuesday, October 3rd
5:00 PM - 6:30 PM
Cumberland School of Law
Great Room 207

Join us for small group discussions with attorneys from small, medium, and large firms, in-house counsel, public office, and non-traditional jobs. We will have a dinner, a raffle, and networking time after the small group discussions. All students are welcome.

RSVP by September 25th at https://2017pathtosuccess.eventbrite.com

Why should you attend?

Raffle for items including Kendra Scott Jewelry and Target gift cards!

Networking Opportunity

McAlister’s Deli Catering

Why should you attend?

Raffle for items including Kendra Scott Jewelry and Target gift cards!

Networking Opportunity

McAlister’s Deli Catering
Plan Ahead

Cumberland Law Review & The American Journal of Trial Advocacy

PRESENT

A BALLPARK OVERVIEW: THE FIELD OF SPORTS LAW

Friday
OCTOBER
13TH
8:30 TO 11:45 AM

SCHAEFFER EYE LOUNGE • REGIONS FIELD • BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

REGISTER BY EMAILING JTrialAd@samford.edu

We will be having an Informational Meeting about Cumberland's International Programs on Thursday, October 12th, 11:30 am to 12:30 pm in the Bishop Conference Room, 226.

Law School Announcements

Congratulations to the following students for making this year's Justice Richard L. "Red" Jones National Moot Court Team!

Xan Ingram
Emily Schreiber
Sarah Emerson
Brenton Thompson

Michael Dunphy
Emily Hopper
Mark Cowell
Julianne Zilahy

Evan Patel
Sidney Jackson
Gage Smythe
Taylor Akers
Law School Announcements

The Henry C. Strickland Negotiation Competition
The Henry C. Strickland Negotiation Competition took place September 7-8th, with the finals the next week on the 13th. There were 38 competitors in attendance who were judged for two rounds by attorneys across Birmingham. The competitors received great feedback and constructive criticism on how to become better negotiators. The top 12 scoring competitors moved on to the second day, where they were eventually narrowed down to the final 4.

- The final 4 competitors were Mackenzie Luce, Jacey Mann, Ben Warren, and Constantin Post.
- Mackenzie Luce took first place, while Jacey Mann was the runner-up.
- The national negotiation team will be sending out invites for its national team soon, so please be expecting that email soon!

Cumberland Community Mediation Center & Public Interest Programs News

Left (Left to Right): Cassandra Adams; Steve Rygiel; Rod Rosenstein (US Deputy Attorney General); Valerie Price; and Martha Cook at “Hate Crimes – A Conference on Law Enforcement and Civil Rights” (Presented by the FBI, Birmingham division and the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute)

Right: Dean Cassandra Adams was a panel speaker for the Hate Crimes conference. The topic of her panel was “What is Hate in Your Community?”
A round table discussion for our law students was hosted by the International Justice Mission (IJM) on “The Intersection of Law & Faith.” The discussion was moderated by Cumberland graduate Kimberly Hawkins ’17.