

Checklist by Year

Samford University Career Development Center

---

---

Freshmen

- Visit a career counselor in the CDC to identify interests, values, & skills
- Explore academic majors
- Visit the CDC's majors fair in fall semester
- Plan a tentative program of study for your undergrad years; include electives in additional areas
- Establish relationships with academic advisors and/or faculty members
- Research careers
- Conduct informational interviews by talking to people who work in your fields of interest
- Learn to balance schoolwork with social activities
- Keep records of all campus and work activities for resume development
- Participate in on- or off-campus work and find a summer job that interests you

For more information, stop by or call the Career Development Center
103 Dwight Beeson Hall • 205-726-2980