Community

We encourage residents to build community by interacting with others in a positive and supportive attitude. With any living arrangement, problems can develop. It is imperative to show mutual respect and consideration for one another. Before you act, think about the consequences. More often than not, your actions can be redirected in a more constructive manner. Your residence hall is made up of people with a variety of backgrounds and lifestyles.

Students may not possess or consume alcohol on the campus. The use of illegal drugs or abuse of prescribed medications is also prohibited. Each program participant has a right to an atmosphere helpful for sleep beginning at 10:00 p.m. every evening. Quiet hours are violated with such activities as shouting, yelling or talking on cell phones in the hallways, a gathering of residents in a room that can be heard in the hallway, loud TV or music, and any other activity that disturbs others. Residents should be courteous of each other's needs and must immediately cease any noise or activity that is disturbing someone else, regardless of the time.

Additionally, Residence Hall Staff are available in the dorms and may be contacted with an issue related to the dorm itself, or in case of emergency. Parents are asked to not contact residents via the staff members unless it is an emergency.
