Supportive Community

These degree programs are rigorous, but Samford’s close-knit community enables you to learn and grow. Students research, study, and volunteer together inside and outside the classroom.

Strong Reputation

Nationally recognized and accredited, our programs set you apart from the competition.

Orlean Bullard Beeson School of Education
800 Lakeshore Drive
Birmingham, AL 35229

These degree programs are rigorous, but Samford’s close-knit community enables you to learn and grow. Students research, study, and volunteer together inside and outside the classroom.

Samford is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE).

The U.S. Department of Education recognized the Department of Curriculum and Instruction as one of the top four effective teacher preparation programs in the nation.

The National Council on Family Relations recognizes Samford as a Certified Family Life Educator-approved program, which allows graduates to apply for the CFLE designation with an abbreviated application process.

Nationally recognized and accredited, our programs set you apart from the competition.

M.S.E., Elementary Education
M.S.E., Gifted Certification
M.S.E., Instructional Leadership
M.S.E., Educational Leadership: Policy, Organizations and Leadership
5th-year Alternative Graduate Program in Early Childhood/Elementary Education
5th-year Nontraditional Master’s Program in Secondary Education
Ed.S., Teacher Leader
Ed.S., Instructional Leader
Ed.D., Educational Leadership

Graduate Programs

Take your education to the next level with Samford’s graduate programs. In just five years, students can earn their undergraduate AND graduate degrees in Early Childhood/Elementary Education or Secondary Education.

Samford is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE).

The U.S. Department of Education recognized the Department of Curriculum and Instruction as one of the top four effective teacher preparation programs in the nation.

The National Council on Family Relations recognizes Samford as a Certified Family Life Educator-approved program, which allows graduates to apply for the CFLE designation with an abbreviated application process.

Nationally recognized and accredited, our programs set you apart from the competition.

M.S.E., Elementary Education
M.S.E., Gifted Certification
M.S.E., Instructional Leadership
M.S.E., Educational Leadership: Policy, Organizations and Leadership
5th-year Alternative Graduate Program in Early Childhood/Elementary Education
5th-year Nontraditional Master’s Program in Secondary Education
Ed.S., Teacher Leader
Ed.S., Instructional Leader
Ed.D., Educational Leadership

ORLEAN BULLARD BEESON SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

SAMFORD UNIVERSITY

10 Colleges and Schools

Visit Samford
Maybe you just want a feel for campus. Or maybe you want to sit in a class or eat in the call center with a professor and stay in a residence hall. Either way, we invite you to experience Samford for yourself. To make a reservation, go to www.samford.edu/visit or call 205-SAMFORD (726-3673).

Apply to Samford
Ready to start your application? Go to www.samford.edu/apply.

Application Checklist
- Application
- Essay
- Official test scores
- Official high school transcripts
- Academic recommendation

Application Deadlines
- Aug. 1 Application available
- Dec. 15 Priority Scholarship Deadline
- Mar. 15 Regular Scholarship Deadline

Contact us:
admission@samford.edu
www.samford.edu/admission
205-SAMFORD (726-3673)

Produced by Samford Office of Marketing and Communication. Samford University is a private independent, not-for-profit institution and is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and various professional associations. The University does not discriminate by race, color, sex, age, national or ethnic origin, disability, veteran status, genetic information, or sexual orientation. Students are encouraged to report any sexual harassment.薩福克大學是私人獨立、非營利機構，並由南部學院和專業機構協會認證。學校不會因為種族、顏色、性別、年齡、國家或族裔背景、身體障礙、退伍軍人身份、基因信息或性取向而歧視。我們鼓勵學生報告任何性侵犯。
The Front Lines of Change

Students in Orleans-Bullard Beeson School of Education change lives every day. In the classroom or in the community, our students and graduates are on the front lines, making a difference for children and families. These are not jobs for the faint of heart. It takes passion, courage and stamina. With real-world experience, a supportive community and a strong reputation, Samford prepares you to conquer the challenges you’ll face every day.

Curriculum and Instruction

Students may be in your classroom for only one year, but your actions can shape the rest of their lives. At Samford, we prepare you to take on this responsibility. With over 4,000 clinical hours prior to student teaching, our students feel at home when they enter the classroom their junior year.

Majors and Concentrations

- Education (4-year certificate)
- Early Childhood Education
- Early Childhood Special Education
- Elementary Education
- Elementary Collaborative Education (5-year 4th-grade)
- Elementary Education with a concentration in Christian Education and Missions
- More Education (4-year grade)
- Instrumental/vocal
- Language Arts
- General Social Studies
- History
- World Languages (6th–12th grade)
- French, German and Spanish

 Physicians have the responsibility of preparing every other profession. Teachers have an enormous responsibility to prepare the future professionals and leaders of the world. If we fail, society fails.”

Aaron Conner, senior, curriculum and instruction

Hands-on Opportunities

Avondale Elementary School
- The Bell Center
- Birmingham Crisis Center
- Birmingham YMCA
- Birmingham Children’s Hospital
- Cosey Lane
- The Exceptional Foundation

Academia Charter Schools, Harlem, N.Y.
- Katrina Brown ’13, works with families and students at the Bell Center, in New York City.
- "Teachers work tirelessly to educate, mentor and develop the future of our nation. Our job is vital to the success of our nation, yet is rarely noticed by the majority of the population. Being an educator is a great honor and responsibility, one that I am glad to call my own.”

Mandy Stanley ’14, curriculum and instruction

Lead in the Classroom

“Teachers work tirelessly to educate, mentor and develop the future of our nation. Our job is vital to the success of our nation, yet is rarely noticed by the majority of the population. Being an educator is a great honor and responsibility, one that I am glad to call my own.”

Aaron Conner, senior, curriculum and instruction

Lead in the Community

“The human development and family science major is an intersection of psychology, sociology and individual development that pushes students to explore a variety of different career options. What you learn in this program helps you in whatever personal and professional endeavor you choose.”

Katrina Brown ’13, works with families and students at Academy Charter Schools, Harlem, N.Y.

Human Development and Family Life Education

Being on the front lines means being an advocate. In this profession, you serve families during difficult and life-altering times. You have the power to impact lives for the better.

Curriculum and Instruction

Students may be in your classroom for only one year, but your actions can shape the rest of their lives. At Samford, we prepare you to take on this responsibility. With over 4,000 clinical hours prior to student teaching, our students feel at home when they enter the classroom their junior year.

Majors and Concentrations

- Education (4-year certificate)
- Early Childhood Education
- Early Childhood Special Education
- Elementary Education
- Elementary Collaborative Education (5-year 4th-grade)
- Elementary Education with a concentration in Christian Education and Missions
- More Education (4-year grade)
- Instrumental/vocal
- Language Arts
- General Social Studies
- History
- World Languages (6th–12th grade)
- French, German and Spanish

Doctors have the responsibility of preparing every other profession. Teachers have an enormous responsibility to prepare the future professionals and leaders of the world. If we fail, society fails.”

Aaron Conner, senior, curriculum and instruction

Hands-on Opportunities

Avondale Elementary School
- The Bell Center
- Birmingham Crisis Center
- Birmingham YMCA
- Birmingham Children’s Hospital
- Cosey Lane
- The Exceptional Foundation

Academia Charter Schools, Harlem, N.Y.
- Katrina Brown ’13, works with families and students at the Bell Center, in New York City.
- "Teachers work tirelessly to educate, mentor and develop the future of our nation. Our job is vital to the success of our nation, yet is rarely noticed by the majority of the population. Being an educator is a great honor and responsibility, one that I am glad to call my own.”

Mandy Stanley ’14, curriculum and instruction

Lead in the Classroom

“Teachers work tirelessly to educate, mentor and develop the future of our nation. Our job is vital to the success of our nation, yet is rarely noticed by the majority of the population. Being an educator is a great honor and responsibility, one that I am glad to call my own.”

Aaron Conner, senior, curriculum and instruction

Lead in the Community

“The human development and family science major is an intersection of psychology, sociology and individual development that pushes students to explore a variety of different career options. What you learn in this program helps you in whatever personal and professional endeavor you choose.”

Katrina Brown ’13, works with families and students at Academy Charter Schools, Harlem, N.Y.

Human Development and Family Life Education

Being on the front lines means being an advocate. In this profession, you serve families during difficult and life-altering times. You have the power to impact lives for the better.

Curriculum and Instruction

Students may be in your classroom for only one year, but your actions can shape the rest of their lives. At Samford, we prepare you to take on this responsibility. With over 4,000 clinical hours prior to student teaching, our students feel at home when they enter the classroom their junior year.

Majors and Concentrations

- Education (4-year certificate)
- Early Childhood Education
- Early Childhood Special Education
- Elementary Education
- Elementary Collaborative Education (5-year 4th-grade)
- Elementary Education with a concentration in Christian Education and Missions
- More Education (4-year grade)
- Instrumental/vocal
- Language Arts
- General Social Studies
- History
- World Languages (6th–12th grade)
- French, German and Spanish

Doctors have the responsibility of preparing every other profession. Teachers have an enormous responsibility to prepare the future professionals and leaders of the world. If we fail, society fails.”

Aaron Conner, senior, curriculum and instruction

Hands-on Opportunities

Avondale Elementary School
- The Bell Center
- Birmingham Crisis Center
- Birmingham YMCA
- Birmingham Children’s Hospital
- Cosey Lane
- The Exceptional Foundation

Academia Charter Schools, Harlem, N.Y.
- Katrina Brown ’13, works with families and students at the Bell Center, in New York City.
- "Teachers work tirelessly to educate, mentor and develop the future of our nation. Our job is vital to the success of our nation, yet is rarely noticed by the majority of the population. Being an educator is a great honor and responsibility, one that I am glad to call my own.”

Mandy Stanley ’14, curriculum and instruction

Lead in the Classroom

“Teachers work tirelessly to educate, mentor and develop the future of our nation. Our job is vital to the success of our nation, yet is rarely noticed by the majority of the population. Being an educator is a great honor and responsibility, one that I am glad to call my own.”

Aaron Conner, senior, curriculum and instruction

Lead in the Community

“The human development and family science major is an intersection of psychology, sociology and individual development that pushes students to explore a variety of different career options. What you learn in this program helps you in whatever personal and professional endeavor you choose.”

Katrina Brown ’13, works with families and students at Academy Charter Schools, Harlem, N.Y.