

THE ART OF ADVOCACY

CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION CONFERENCE

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Cumberland School of Law is seeking sponsorships for its one-of-a-kind international CLE conference, the Art of Advocacy: Advocacy in the Age of A.I. This event will be held in Edinburgh, Scotland at the five-star Balmoral Hotel, June 28 – 30, 2026. Take advantage of this opportunity to join legal professionals in learning more about the developing law surrounding the use of A.I. in practice while in an international location. Proceeds will support international programming for Cumberland School of Law students.

Gold Sponsor ($5,000)

- Two conference registrations
- Name recognition in all event marketing materials, electronic mailings and social media posts
- Logo placement on all conference materials
- Recognition during the program

Silver Sponsor ($3,000)

- One conference registration
- Name recognition in all event marketing materials, electronic mailings and social media posts
- Logo placement on all conference materials
- Recognition during the program

Bronze Sponsor ($2,000)

- 50% off conference registration for one attendee
- Name recognition in all event marketing materials, electronic mailings and social media posts
- Logo placement on all conference materials
- Recognition during the program

Platinum Sponsor ($10,000)

- Recognition during the program as a presenting sponsor
- Opportunity to present at conference
- Two conference registrations
- Name recognition in all event marketing materials, electronic mailings and social media posts
- Logo placement on all conference materials

To become a sponsor for the Art of Advocacy
international CLE event, scan or click the QR code.

Questions?

Contact Tona Hitson:
thitson@samford.edu
205-726-2222