TITLE III Legislative Branch Laws

Chapter 300 Regular Session

- 300.1 The Vice President for Senate will serve as President of the Senate.
- 300.2 The regular session of the Senate shall begin no later than one week after the Fall Election.
- 300.3 All meetings for the Senate shall be held at the discretion of President of the Senate in a time and place of his/her choosing. All Senators will be notified of where the first meeting will be held a week before the meeting takes place. If that time and place are to be deviated from, then the entire Senate must be notified within twenty-four (24) hours. All meetings shall be open to the public unless the Senate shall specifically vote to close a meeting.
- 300.4 The Senate may alter the time and place of a particular meeting by majority vote one week previous.

Chapter 301 Membership

- 301.1 Each Undergraduate School of the University shall be entitled to one Senator per 100 enrolled students in that School. If a School shall have 60 enrolled students in excess of the final 100 represented, that School shall be entitled to an additional Senator (e.g., 250 enrolled students = 2 Senators; 260 enrolled students = 3 Senators). Pre-pharmacy students shall be included in the School of Pharmacy. Students classified as undecided shall be counted as Arts and Sciences students. A Senator must be enrolled as a major student in a School to represent that School. Each School shall have at least one Senator. A candidate for School Senator must have a cumulative GPA of at least 2.0 and be classified as a full-time student.
- 301.2 A Senator shall represent the school of which they were a part during their election, for the full Senate term.
- 301.3 The President of every class shall be members of the Senate and shall be subject to the Senate absence policy as specified in 301.6.
- 301.4 The term of office for a School Senator shall be from the time he/she takes the Oath of Office at inauguration until the day of inauguration for the next Senate.

- 301.5 The President of the Senate shall appoint a replacement within two weeks after a vacancy occurs. Such replacement shall meet all eligibility requirements for the office of Senator. All appointments must be confirmed by a majority vote from the Senate.
- 301.6 A Senator shall be permitted five (5) absences per academic year and may not be absent more than three (3) times in either the Fall or Spring Semesters. When a Senator exceeds the allotted number of absences, he/she will be removed by the President of the Senate.
- 301.7 A non-attending Senator shall be encouraged to vote by proxy. Proxy shall be defined as a constituent of the non-attending Senator. The non-attending Senator should send the last Senate meeting's minutes to the proxy with the expectation that the proxy will act in the interests of the constituency that they are representing and cast informed votes. Each non-attending Senator shall be allowed one (1) proxy per semester without being counted absent.
- 301.8 The Freshman Class shall be entitled to one Senator per 200 enrolled students classified according to earned credits as freshmen. If the class shall have 120 enrolled students in excess of the last 200 represented, the class shall be entitled to an additional Senator. A candidate for Freshmen Senator must have a cumulative GPA of at least 2.0 and be classified as a full-time student.

Chapter 302

Officials

- 302.1 The President of the Senate shall appoint, with the consent of the Senate, a Parliamentarian. The Parliamentarian shall not be a member of the Senate. The Parliamentarian shall be the deciding power on Roberts Rules of Order and the Rules of Procedure when a question or point of order is raised in senate. Decisions made by the Parliamentarian may be appealed by senate within the laws of Roberts Rules of Order. The President of the Senate shall name an acting Parliamentarian to serve at the first meeting and until a Parliamentarian shall be chosen. The Parliamentarian shall also serve on the SGA Electoral Commission (see 302.4). The Parliamentarian will also be held to the same standards set in chapter 300, 301.6.
- 302.2 The President of the Senate shall appoint, with the consent of the Senate, a Secretary. The Secretary shall not be a member of the Senate. The Secretary shall take minutes of every meeting and shall receive and number all proposed bills and resolutions. The Secretary shall also enroll bills on the Calendar of Bills, and shall introduce all bills and resolutions. The President of the Senate shall appoint an acting Secretary to serve at the first meeting and until a Secretary shall be chosen. The Secretary shall serve on the SGA Electoral Commission (see 302.4). The Secretary will also be held to the same standards set in chapter 300, 301.6.
- 302.3 The President of the Senate shall appoint a President Pro-Tempore. The appointee shall be selected from the members of the Senate and will also be approved or denied by Senate. The President Pro-Tempore shall preside at meetings of the Senate when the President of the Senate is absent. The President of the Senate shall nominate a President Pro-Tempore no later than the second meeting after the Fall General Election.

- 302.4 The Electoral Commission shall consist of the Senate Secretary, Parliamentarian, and one representative from the Student Judiciary Council appointed by the Chief Justice. The Electoral Commission shall work in conjunction with the President of the Senate to conduct all student elections and review campaign violations.
- 302.5 The Treasurer of the Student Government Association shall attend and present a budget report at all regular Senate meetings. The primary duty of the Treasurer at Senate meetings is to provide advice and answer questions relating to the overall financial state of the SGA. The SGA Treasurer shall also be responsible for conducting Student Organization Financial Stewardship Reports to be presented at the beginning of each semester.

Chapter 303

Forms of Legislation

- 303.1 Bills shall be legislative proposals to appropriate monies (such as the Annual Budget Act) as provided by law. Bills shall also be adopted statutory amendments and revisions.
- 303.2 A resolution shall be a formal expression of the will, opinion, or intent of the assembly. It shall bear a superscription that shall clearly identify the sponsor(s).
- 303.3 All bills presented to the Senate for consideration shall be numbered by the Secretary. Each proposed bill shall be designated by a number preceded by SB (e.g., SB 1). A bill passed by the Senate shall be designated by a title, number, and incorporated in the Code of Laws by the Chair of the Code of Laws Committee. The numerical designation shall be in the form of academic year-number (e.g., 96-97-01). The Secretary and President of the Senate shall be the only persons authorized to number bills. The Press Secretary/Public Relations Committee shall post a graphic on social media channels with a list of bills that have been passed and signed by the SGA President within one week.
- 303.4 All resolutions presented to the Senate for consideration shall be numbered by the Secretary. Each proposed resolution shall be designated by a number preceded by SR (e.g., SR 1). A resolution adopted by the Senate shall be designated by a number in the form academic year number (e.g., 90-91-01), and may be titled. The resolution shall then be incorporated into the Code of Laws. The Press Secretary/Public Relations Committee shall post a graphic on social media channels with a list of resolutions that have been passed and signed by the SGA President within one week.
- 303.5 Bills shall be considered as provided by law in Chapter 304 of Title III of this Code. A Bill shall be presented to the Senate Secretary who shall read it to the assembly. The Bill, after the first reading, shall be referred by the President of the Senate to the appropriate committee. The committee, when they have considered the Bill and made any changes that they feel to be necessary, shall report the Bill to the Senate. The Secretary shall enroll the reported Bill on the Calendar of Bills, to be considered later at that meeting. At least one week must elapse between the Bill's first reading and its report by committee, unless the rules have been suspended in accordance with Roberts Rules of Order or as provided by law.
- 303.6 Resolutions shall be considered as provided by law in Chapter 304 of Title III of this Code. A resolution shall be presented to the Secretary who shall read it to the assembly. After its first reading, it may be referred to a committee, reported at a subsequent meeting, or be acted upon by the assembly immediately. If a committee reports a resolution, it shall be acted on immediately, as a part of that committee's report.

- 303.7 Upon passage, bills and resolutions shall be published on an official SGA letterhead by the Secretary. The sponsor(s) of the bill (or the committee chairperson if the bill is sponsored by a committee), the President of the Senate, the President Pro-Tempore, and the Secretary shall sign the bill. The bill shall be forwarded to the SGA President as provided in 304.6. The President of the SGA shall then sign or veto the bill, and then return it to the President of the Senate within twenty-four (24) hours before the next regular Senate meeting. If the bill is not returned to the President of the Senate in the allotted amount of time, the bill automatically becomes law. If the bill is vetoed, the SGA President shall return the bill, with a written explanation for his/her veto, to the Senate with a two-thirds (2/3) vote for approval or denial. A 2/3 majority vote of the Senate is required to overturn a veto and enact the legislation. Resolutions shall follow the same procedure.
- 303.8 In order for the Code of Laws to be amended Senate must pass a bill by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote specifying the changed portion(s).

Chapter 304 Rules of Procedure

304.1 Definitions:

Calendar of Bills and Resolutions – the official list of all bills and resolutions reported favorably out of committee, in consecutive order, to be considered by the Senate.

Calendar of Executive Business – the official list of all items of business put to the Senate by the SGA President or SEB concerning nominations or policies and the executive business of the Senate, such as approval of Senate officials.

304.2 The Senate shall observe the following Rules in conducting its business:

I. The Order of Business shall be:

1. Opening, Prayer, and Reception of Messages
2. Consideration of Business on the President's Table
3. Reports of the Committees
4. Introduction of Bills
5. Introduction of Resolutions
6. Consideration of the Calendar of Bills and Resolutions
7. Consideration of the Calendar of Executive Business

II. The session shall be opened by the President of the Senate, or the President Pro Tempore in the absence of the President of the Senate. The Chaplain or the person designated shall say a prayer. No motion may be entertained by the President until the session has been opened and the prayer said.

- III. Immediately after the prayer, or the opening of the session, the President of the Senate shall read to the members any messages received for the Senate. This shall include any bills objected to by the SGA President.
- IV. Upon the reading of a message from the SGA President pertaining to a bill to which he/she has objected, the bill in question may be laid on the President of the Senate's Table for consideration in this session, postponed for consideration at another session (in which case it shall be laid on the President of the Senate's Table until that time), or referred to committee. Any member may make one of these motions.
- V. After all messages have been received by the members, the President of the Senate shall present to the members any items on his/her Table, except those items that have been postponed until a definite later date.
- VI. A bill reported favorably by committee shall be enrolled on the Calendar of Bills by the Secretary for consideration. A resolution reported favorably by committee shall be presented to the assembly for consideration.
- VII. Any member who wishes to present a bill to the assembly shall provide the Secretary or the President of the Senate with a copy of the bill no less than twenty four (24) hours before the meeting is called to order. The Secretary or the President of the Senate will not put any bill that has not fulfilled these criteria on the agenda. At the time for the Introduction of Bills, the President of the Senate shall announce to the assembly each bill to be introduced and the member or members sponsoring the bill. After each bill is announced by the President of the Senate, the Secretary shall read the bill. The President shall then refer the bill to the appropriate committee then the Secretary shall ensure that each member of the committee shall receive an accurate copy of the bill. If the appropriate Committee sponsored the bill, referral to the appropriate committee can be bypassed and the bill shall be enrolled on the Calendar of Bills by the Secretary for consideration.
- VIII. Any member who wishes to present a resolution to the assembly shall provide the Secretary or the President of the Senate with a copy of the resolution no less than ten (10) hours before the meeting is called to order. At the time for the Introduction of Resolutions, the President of the Senate shall announce to the assembly each resolution to be introduced and the member or members sponsoring the resolution. After each resolution is announced by the President of the Senate, the Secretary shall read the resolution. The President of the Senate shall then either refer the resolution to the appropriate committee or present it to the assembly for immediate action.
- IX. After all bills and resolutions have been introduced, the President of the Senate shall direct the Secretary to read the first bill on the Calendar of Bills to the assembly for consideration. The Calendar shall continue in order until all of the Bills on the Calendar have been acted upon, or until a member shall move that consideration of the remainder of the Calendar be postponed until the next session. Any bill on the Calendar of Bills, regardless of its order on the Calendar, may be considered by unanimous consent. Each member shall be provided with a copy of the Calendar of Bills.
- X. After the Calendar of Bills and Resolutions has been considered, the President of the Senate shall direct the Secretary to read the Calendar of Executive Business. The Calendar of Executive Business shall continue in order until all of the items on the Calendar have been considered, or a member shall move that consideration of the remainder of the Calendar be postponed until the next session.

XI. The Secretary shall enroll on the Calendar of Executive Business any appointments from the SGA President presented to the Senate for their consent, the reports of committees pertaining to such appointments, and such items as proposed amendments to the Student Body Constitution.

- 304.3 Quorum shall be defined as 35% of the members.
- 304.4 The Senate shall follow Roberts Rules of Order, insofar as those rules do not conflict with the Constitution of the Samford University Student Body or any law stated herein.
- 304.5 Majority vote shall be 50% + 1 of the members present. 2/3 vote shall be 66% + 1 of the members present.
- 304.6 In the event that the Senate is equally divided on a vote, the President of the Senate will have the tie-breaking vote.
- 304.6 The President of the Senate shall present all bills and resolutions passed by the Senate to the SGA President within two days of passage.
- 304.7 The Senate shall publicize pending legislation and shall encourage students to voice the opinions on such legislation. Such publicity may be coordinated by the President of the Senate or Secretary in conjunction with the Press Secretary.
- 304.8 Any member may make a motion to request a roll call vote. The Secretary shall record each Senator's vote.
- 304.9 The dress code for Samford SGA Senate meetings will be up to the discretion of the President of the Senate.

Chapter 305

Impeachment Proceedings

- 305.1 The Senate shall have the sole power to impeach any SGA office holder. However, any SGA office holder, including Senators, may file a written Request for Impeachment with the Chief Justice. If the Chief Justice is accused, the request may then be filed with the President of the Senate, who shall then be responsible for its presentation to the Senate. These Requests for Impeachment must include the name and office of the person making the request, the name and office of the accused, the reason(s) for the request, and the name of such person(s) who can substantiate the claim. All requests for impeachment are to be kept as confidential as possible by all involved parties, including, but not limited to, the Chief Justice and all voting and non-voting members of the Senate.
- 305.2 During the Consideration of Business on the Presidents table at the first Senate meeting, after a Request for Impeachment has been submitted, the Chief Justice (or the President of the Senate if the Chief Justice is accused) shall present the Request for Impeachment to the Senate. At this time, any Senator may make a motion to impeach the accused office holder. If such a motion is made and seconded, the Senate shall follow the rules of procedure in sections 305.4 and 305.5 below in voting whether or not to impeach the accused office holder. If no such motion is made, the Request for Impeachment shall be considered denied, and it shall then be destroyed.

- 305.3 The Senate shall have power to impeach any Senator, whether elected or appointed, by a majority vote. The Senate shall try all cases of impeachment against Senators, according to the rules of procedure in 305.5.
- 305.4 The Senate shall have power to impeach any SGA office-holder, whether elected or appointed to office. If a motion to impeach an office-holder, except a Senator, shall pass the Senate by majority vote, charges shall be presented to the Student Judiciary Council (SJC) for their action. The Senate shall appoint one or more of its members to present the case to the SJC. If a Justice shall be charged, the Justice shall be automatically temporarily suspended, and the SGA President shall appoint an Acting Justice for the sole purpose of hearing the misconduct case. The court shall issue such documents demanding the submission of evidence or the presence of an individual as shall be necessary for the prosecutor to conduct a thorough investigation of the alleged act(s) of misconduct. The hearing shall consist of (1) opening statements, first by the prosecutor, then by the accused student or his/her representative, 2) the presentation of evidence and testimony, first by the prosecutor, then by the accused party or his/her representative, (3) the opportunity for rebuttal by the prosecutor, and then the accused party or representative, (4) closing statements, first by the accused student or his/her representative' then by the prosecutor, (5) judgment by the SJC. The judiciary may, at any time, ask questions of either party, or of any witnesses.
- 305.5 If a Senator shall be impeached, the Senate shall appoint one of its members to prosecute the case. The accused Senator shall be permitted to defend himself/herself, with or without the aid of another Senator(s). The Senate shall meet in Special Session to hear a misconduct case. The Secretary shall read the charge to the Senate. Then the prosecutor shall present the case against the accused Senator. The accused Senator shall then defend himself/herself. Either side may also utilize testimony from other Senators or other individuals. The members of the Senate shall have at least 30 minutes to question the accused Senator and any person(s) who gave testimony. The accused Senator shall then be dismissed. The Senate shall then deliberate for as long as they shall think necessary. A 2/3 vote shall be required to remove the accused Senator from office. The Senate shall have power to compel testimony by issuing subpoenas. Any person found in contempt by the Senate shall be liable to prosecution before the SJC.
- 305.6 Any Senator found guilty of misconduct and removed from office by the Senate may appeal to an appeal board on the contention that there was some defect in the original trial. This board shall be comprised of the Senate committee chairs and presided over by the President of the Senate. The defendant or his/her representative will come before the board and present evidence of a defect in the original trial. The appeal board will then recess and determine if there was a defect in the original trial. The appeal board may deny an appeal if they find that no defect existed in the original trial. If the board elects to hear an appeal, the original prosecutor shall present the case before the board. The procedure for the appeal hearing shall follow the rules of procedure set out in Title III, Chapter 305.5. If the accused Senator is a committee chair, then the next ranking committee member shall fill the seat.
- 305.7 Any office-holder found guilty of misconduct and removed from office by the SJC may appeal his/her case to the Senate on the claim that there was some defect in the original trial. The Senate may deny an appeal if they shall find that no such defect existed. If the Senate shall agree that there was a defect in the original trial, they shall hear the case. The original prosecutor and defender shall argue the case before the Senate according to the guidelines set forth in Chapter 305.5.

- 305.8 A recording of all hearings shall be made for purposes of determining validity of appeal as outlined in Chapter 305.6. Such record(s) shall be sealed after the final decision is reached. The sealed record(s) shall then be held by the SGA advisor until the student is no longer enrolled, at which time the record(s) will be destroyed.
- 305.9 No person shall be subject to prosecution twice for the same act of misconduct. No person shall be compelled to be a witness against himself/herself.

Chapter 306 Committees

- 306.1 Each committee shall have a chairperson, nominated by the President of the Senate with Senate confirmation.
- 306.2 Each active committee shall meet no less than once every two weeks. Attendance shall be recorded by the chairperson and reported to the Senate Secretary.
- 306.3 There shall be a Finance Committee of no more than twelve (12) members. The Finance Committee shall be responsible for periodically reviewing the SGA Budget and shall receive, review, and make a recommendation to the Senate concerning the proposed Annual Budget from the SEB. The Finance Committee shall review all requests for funds made by other University organizations and make a recommendation concerning such requests to the Senate that are consistent with Chapter 309 and Appendix A. For each recommendation, the Finance Committee will submit a bill to Senate members.
- 306.4 There shall be a Student Life Committee of no more than nine (9) members. The Student Life Committee shall be concerned with matters such as convocation, student activities, clubs and organizations, and sustainability initiatives.
- 306.4.1 A checklist for the Student Life Committee as outlined in the new student organization criteria in Appendix B is to be used during new organization hearings. The Student Life Committee will bring the completed checklist before the Senate and allow the Senate to vote on the new student organization according to the checklist and Senate's own opinion.
- 306.5 There shall be a Diversity Committee of no more than (7) members. The Diversity Committee shall seek to foster love and hospitality in a broken world and to engage all diverse communities of both believers and non-believers into the loving community of Christ at Samford. The Diversity Committee shall seek to improve student and campus relations by working with students, Office of Student Success and Diversity, Office of Accessibility and Accommodations, Multicultural Affairs Committee, and related student organizations per the honor code.
- 306.6 There shall be a Campus Services Committee of no more than ten (10) members. The Campus Services Committee shall serve as liaisons between students and administration with regards to student concerns for any campus service. The Campus Services Committee shall seek to continually improve the campus in areas involving campus architecture/design, Dining Services, Health Services, Public Safety and Transportation Services.

- 306.7 There shall be a Community Life Committee of no more than (8) members. The Community Life Committee shall seek to work with the University's Department of Residence Life with regards to student concerns for University housing facilities, procedures, rules, and programs. The Community Life Committee shall also seek to work with the Athletic Directors and Programs to ensure that the needs of student athletes are properly heard by the SGA Senate.
- 306.8 There shall be a Code of Laws Committee of no more than seven (7) members. The Code of Laws Committee shall review all proposed changes to the Code of Laws and shall have the duty of reviewing the Code of Laws each year to keep it consistent with the SGA Constitution and the current times.
- 306.9 There shall be an Academic Affairs Committee of no more than seven (7) members. The Academic Affairs Committee shall seek to work with Technology Services, the University Provost and other academic officials to address student concerns with regards to the academic programs of the University, represent academic issues, such as graduation, and advocate to administrators to maintain an adequate amount of student study locations with reasonable hours of operation.
- 306.10 Ad hoc committees shall be proposed by a resolution in the Senate. The resolution must include (1) the committee's purpose and goals, (2) its expected duration, (3) how often it will meet, (4) its members, (5) a chairperson who is already an elected or appointed member of SGA, (6) the SGA body to which it will report, (7) how often it will report to that body. Should the Senate pass the resolution, the committee shall be created immediately. All ad hoc committees must be renewed by resolution by the third Senate meeting of the fall semester.
- 306.11 Every Senator shall serve on at least one committee.
- 306.12 All standing Senate committees shall have at least three members, including the chairperson.
- 306.13 The chairs of the committees stated herein shall have the power to call a meeting of his/her committee whenever it is deemed necessary. The chair shall also have the power to determine the agenda for said meetings, and items not stated on the agenda may be brought forth by way of a 2/3 vote. Quorum shall be defined as 35% of the membership of said committee. The general format of meetings shall also reside within the decision of the chair. The chair, as well as all members of the committee shall have one (1) vote; however, in the event of a tie, the chair shall cast the tie-breaking vote. Ad-hoc committees shall deal with business as provided in 306.10.
- 306.14 The President of the Senate shall be an ex-officio member of all committees. The President Pro-Tempore shall be an ex-officio member of all standing committees.

Chapter 307
Senate Public Access Law

- 307.1 All records pertaining to the Senate shall be available for inspection by any member of the SGA, unless such records shall have been declared closed by the Senate or the President of the Senate.
- 307.2 Any member of the SGA may file a petition for release of closed records with the Student Judiciary Council. The petition shall clearly state why such closed records should be released for public inspection. The SJC shall review the closed records and shall, based on the records and the reasons for which they were originally declared closed, determine whether or not to grant the petition.
- 307.3 Obstruction of public access shall be a criminal offense and may constitute misfeasance.
- 307.4 All regular meetings of the Senate shall be open to the public. All regular meetings of Senate committees shall be open to the public. The Senate and its committees shall have the power to bar and expel individuals for disruptive behavior. The Senate may vote to close a meeting by a two-thirds (2/3) vote.
- 307.5 The Senate shall take a proactive approach to public access. The time and place of all meetings shall be announced in all official general SGA advertisements and shall be posted on the informational website. The SGA website shall also contain the names of all Senators, a copy of the minutes from the most recent meeting, and all pending and recently passed legislation and resolutions. Responsibility for carrying out these provisions shall rest ultimately with the President of the Senate.
- 307.6 All Senate meetings shall be livestreamed and archived up until the end of the current academic year for public viewing on a selected social media platform by the President of the Senate and the Press Secretary. The President of the Senate or the Press Secretary shall designate someone to record and publish each meeting. Closed Senate meetings are exempt from this statute.

Chapter 308
Senate Awards

308.1 Rufus Shelton Community Service Award

There shall be an award known as the Rufus Shelton Community Service Award. It will be an annual award presented to one male and one female. Recipients of the award may not be considered for the award again. The award is presented by President of the Senate or President of the SGA at the annual Leadership and Service Convocation. The following explanation of the award is to be read prior to opening the floor for nominations:

"As we all know, each university is a community of scholars, and wherever that university be situated, in a city or in a field, it is a community at least partially unto itself. A friend of Samford has made a financial award available for the purpose of rewarding the undergraduate man and woman whose efforts have made the life of this community better and honoring Rufus W. Shelton, Class of 1932. The award is not intended for the most popular among us, but for those who have done the most toward improving life at Samford - whether by working hard on campus activities, by the inner courage of smiling in the face of difficulty, by brilliance in and devotion to an art, or by any other way that has shone brightly as a special sustained effort for the betterment of community life.”

"We will nominate from the floor."

Nominees are named from the floor of the Senate at the first meeting in March. Qualified nominees will be brought before the Senate at the next meeting, at which time a vote will be taken by secret ballot.

The process will conclude by the first meeting in April.

308.2 SGA Career Achievement Award

There shall be a Student Government Association Career Achievement Award to honor students who have made serving the student body through the Student Government Association a high priority. The award will be presented to one male and one female at the annual SGA Inauguration Ceremony. Recipients of the award may not be considered for the award again. The Senate shall nominate students from the floor of the Senate. In addition, a nominee shall be accepted from each area of SGA and submitted to the President of the Senate for presentation at the first Senate meeting after Spring Break. The nominees shall be voted on by secret ballot by a committee made up of the chairs of all Senate committees. If the chair is nominated, then the next-ranking Senator of that committee will vote in place of the chair.

Chapter 309

Appropriation of Funds by the Senate

- 309.1 Student activities and programs, which may be funded by the Senate Allocation Fund, are defined as events and functions that contribute to the educational, cultural, spiritual, and/or physical development and well-being of the undergraduate community.
- 309.2 A campus organization shall be eligible to submit a funding request to the Senate if the organization:
- (a) Is officially recognized by Samford University and the Office of Student Leadership and Involvement.
 - (b) Has an active agency account with Samford University for the purposes of maintaining and distributing funds related to the organization.
 - (c) Individual Greek Chapters are ineligible for funding. Only Greek governing councils may receive funding for open activities.
- 309.3 The Finance Committee shall, in accordance with 306.3:
- (a) Review funding requests submitted by recognized student organizations and submit a bill of recommendation to Senate after proper consideration and investigation on said matters.
 - (b) Be responsible for updates in policies and procedures concerning the Senate Allocation Fund.
 - (c) A checklist for the Finance Committee as outlined in Appendix A is to be use during funding hearings. The Finance Committee will bring the completed checklist before the Senate and allow the Senate to vote on the funding request according to the checklist, the Finance Committee's recommendation and the Senate's own opinion.

- 309.4 Demonstrated financial responsibility and stewardship within the organization requesting funding shall be considered in Senate Allocations.
- 309.5 Funds requested and purchases made must be consistent and congruent with the original stated purpose of the organization in its submitted funding request.
- 309.6 Funding requests will be submitted on a time and date specified by the President of the Senate. All requests submitted on time will be given priority over late submissions. Late submissions will be heard once all appropriately submitted requests have been voted on. Requests should include a detailed annual itemized budget as well as an itemized budget for the specific request. Each request shall be presented to senate as an individualized bill and include an itemized budget of the student organization. Student Organizations may also submit a funding request for the spring semester as early as the second full week of November. Senate may take up spring funding request as early as the third full week of November.
- (a) Semester early requests may not be heard if the Senate Appropriation Fund has fallen below 25% of its original amount during the fall semester.
- 309.7 All eligible student organizations shall be subject to audit and inventory by the SGA.
- 309.8 An eligible representative from each student organization shall have read over the Senate funding guidelines and procedures in order for the organization to receive funds.
- 309.9 The Senate will not fund:
- (a) Any payments to organization members.
 - (b) Donations to charitable organizations or individuals outside of Samford University.
 - (c) Transportation expenses (rental cars, flights, fuel, etc.).
 - (d) Lodging and other travel expenses (hotels, boarding fees, food, etc.).
 - (e) Food, drinks, materials, etc. for meetings or events that only involve organization members.
 - (f) Clothing or promotional apparel with the exception of uniforms. (A uniform is defined as a necessary dress item required for participation of that group in an event.)
 - (g) Previous debt or reimbursements of any kind.
 - (h) Any items that become personal property.
 - (i) Recruitment events (try-outs, auditions, etc.).
 - (j) Real estate including rental or storage facilities.
 - (k) Conference fees for exclusive organizations that are associated with a specific academic department.
 - (l) Budget requests that exceed $2,500 per semester.
- 309.10 Any unused funds shall be returned to the SGA by the end of the semester at the discretion of the Finance Committee and the SGA Treasurer.
- 309.11 Appropriation recommendations to the Senate will be based on compliance with the rest of this document in addition to the following:

- (a) Thoughtful Planning: Does the program/project seem well planned? Has the organization established goals for the program/project and developed strategies for reaching those goals? Has the organization considered potential obstacles to success? Is it likely that the program/project will meet the organization's goals?
- (b) Impact: Will the program/project positively impact Samford's campus? Does the program/project support Samford's values? Will it build community and provide opportunities for students to get involved? Will the program/project have lasting impact? Will the program/project reach beyond the confines of a particular organization?
- (c) Stewardship: Will the organization be responsible with the funding appropriated by Senate? Is the budget spreadsheet accurate and well thought out? Has the organization handled money appropriately in the past?

309.12 Senate may vote to approve or deny an organization's funding request. Senate has not only the right but the duty to use their best judgment in deciding whether or not to approve an organization's funding request. The funding request shall be judged not only upon its legality, but also upon the criterion outlined in 309.11. If approved, full or partial funding based on the bill passed by Senate will be appropriated.

309.13 Organizations denied funding may request for a subsequent meeting with the Finance Committee and SGA Treasurer. They shall review changes to the Student Organization's budget to be resubmitted before the SGA Senate.

309.14 Organizations granted funds must agree to give proper consideration to the SGA for sponsoring any events, functions, or activities (acknowledgement on any promotional materials, displaying the SGA logo on posters, etc.). This shall be monitored by the Press Secretary in conjunction with the President of the Senate.

309.15 Evaluations will be performed at the conclusion of each semester to ensure that funds are used for their intended purpose. These evaluations will also assess the success and viability of each funded event, function, or activity in order to determine future consideration for funding.

- (a) Any organization that is found to have misused Senate funds will be penalized and referred to the Honor Code Council, which may result in loss of eligibility for future funding requests.
- (b) Should an organization become inactive or misuse Senate funds, all materials, equipment, and other purchases made with the funds are subject to repossession by the SGA.

309.16 The Senate may directly allocate the remaining balance of the Allocation Fund at the end of the Student Government spending year through an allocation bill. This direct allocation must also contribute to the educational, cultural, spiritual, and/or physical development and well-being of the undergraduate community.

309.17 In order to directly allocate funds at year end, the Senate must first have pursued all non-direct spending options. The Senate must first have passed a resolution regarding the matter.

309.18 Each Semester, the Senate may also directly appropriate up to 5% of the total Allocation Fund without stipulations laid in place in (309.17). The Senate will adhere to spending guidelines for student organizations.

TITLE IV
Student Activities Branch Laws

Chapter 400

Organization of the Student Activities Council

- 400.1 The Vice President for Events shall serve as President of the Student Activities Council (SAC).
- 400.2 The Student Activities Council shall exist to provide a variety of activities and events for the student body. The Student Activities Council shall be composed of the Vice President for Events, committee directors, and committee members.
- 400.3 Membership on the Student Activities Council is determined by an application and interview process. The Vice President for Events and the Student Activities Council Advisor oversee this process and make all membership decisions.
- 400.4 Students seeking to serve as the Vice President for Events must have been a committee director prior to seeking election. If no committee directors were to be interested in election, committee members who have served for a year or more may be considered for the position.

Chapter 401

Meetings of the Student Activities Council

- 401.1 All meeting requirements for the Student Activities Council will be determined by the Vice President for Events and the SAC Advisor.

Chapter 402

Duties of Student Activities Council Directors

- 402.1 The Vice President for Events shall maintain contact with Student Activities Council advisors over the summer months. This contact shall be sufficient for the Vice President for Events to adequately prepare for the coming year.
- 402.2 The Vice President for Events and committee directors are responsible for acquiring feedback through various media including, but not limited to, surveys, discussions with other branches of SGA, and other student organizations.
- 402.3 In the case of a committee director position becoming available by means of being removed by the Vice President for Events, withdrawing as a full-time student, or forfeiting title on his/her own terms, the Vice President for Events must seek an immediate replacement. The Vice President for Events can proceed with nominating a committee member or opening the application process again.

Chapter 403
Student Activities Council Committees

- 403.1 All committee quotas and purposes are determined by the Vice President for Events and the Student Activities Council Advisor.

Title V
Judicial Branch Laws

Chapter 500
Composition

- 500.1 The Judicial Branch of the Student Government Association shall consist of the SGA Chief Justice and the Student Judiciary Council.

Chapter 501
The Office of the Chief Justice

- 501.1 The Chief Justice shall preside over the Student Judiciary Council.
- 501.2 The Chief Justice shall be appointed by the outgoing Chief Justice, and incoming SGA President, in conjunction with the Assistant Vice President of Student Affairs, the Student Conduct Coordinator, and SGA Advisor with approval from the student senate.
- 501.3 The selection of Chief Justice shall take place after Spring SGA elections, but not before all newly elected officers have been certified by the Elections Clerk and/or Electoral Commission. Specific time, date, and place of appointment for the Chief Justice will be determined by the incoming SGA President. Any disputes regarding the selection process or outcome shall be resolved by the decision of the outgoing SGA President.
- 501.4 To hold the office of Chief Justice, a candidate must have served one year in the judicial branch prior to being chosen. If the Chief Justice is a junior, they may apply again as a senior, but is not required to hold office two years in a row.
- 501.5 The Chief Justice shall have the power, in accordance with the SGA Advisor of the judicial branch and SGA President, to submit joint nominations to the Senate for the appointment of undergraduates to serve as Justices on the Student Judiciary Council.
- 501.6 The Chief Justice shall have the authority to select three Justices from a total of twenty to serve on an SJC hearing. He/she shall also have the power to remove and/or replace a justice at any time during a hearing should one or more of the following occur:
1. A Justice requests removal, citing personal hardship, or has prior knowledge of the case that could compromise the outcome of the hearing.

2. A Justice exhibits behavior during a hearing that is determined as disruptive, unethical, or unprofessional and could produce an unfair result to the parties involved.

- 501.7 The Chief Justice shall have the sole authority and responsibility to swear in the present year's elected and appointed officers.
- 501.8 The Chief Justice shall serve as the Honor Code Chair and fulfill the duties outlined in the Undergraduate Honor Code Manual.

Chapter 502

The Office of the Deputy Chief Justice

- 602.1 The Deputy Chief Justice will be appointed by the Chief Justice. The Deputy Chief must be a Senate-confirmed justice before his/her appointment as Deputy Chief Justice. The Deputy Chief Justice will focus primarily on Honor Code education and training.
- 602.2 The Deputy Chief Justice, with direction from the Chief Justice, shall be responsible for coordinating Honor Week or a similar event, initiative, or program that promotes the education and awareness of the Honor Code to the student body.

Chapter 503

The Student Judiciary Council

- 503.1 The Student Judiciary Council shall consist of up to 20 Justices and the Chief Justice as specified in Article IX of the Student Body Constitution. The student judiciary council will represent each of the University's colleges or schools that provide undergraduate studies. Justices may not simultaneously serve on any other branch of SGA. Failure to adhere to any of the aforementioned conditions may result in the dismissal of a Justice from his/her position. SJC Justices must resign their position before serving in any other capacity within SGA.
- 503.2 Justices who are to serve on the Student Judiciary Council shall be appointed by the incoming SGA President, incoming chief justice, and the judicial branch advisor with the consent of two-thirds of the Senate. The SGA President and the Chief Justice shall submit their nominations for Justices to the Senate. If a vacancy on the judiciary council does occur in a position due to resignation, ineligibility, or dismissal the SGA President and the Chief Justice shall submit a nominee for a replacement to the Senate within 1 month of the vacancy.
- 503.3 Candidates who seek a position as Justice on the Student Judiciary Council must meet the following requirements:
- A. Candidates must have a grade point average of no less than 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
 - B. Candidates must submit a written application to the Chief Justice and Student Conduct Coordinator and must provide a recommendation from a faculty member in their respective school or college in their application.

C. Candidates must not have been found guilty of an Honor Code Violation, Code of Laws Violation, or an SGA Constitutional Violation prior to their application for the position. Justices are not to receive more than three parking citations in a semester.

D. Candidates must have undergraduate and full-time student status, as defined by the Samford University student catalog. Justices seeking to return to the council for multiple years must reapply and interview each year. Once appointed, Justices are given priority in the selection process but is not guaranteed a position on the Student Judiciary Council.

E. Candidates should be available to make appeal decisions over the summer months.

F. Justices must maintain the aforementioned requirements during service. Failure to maintain these requirements may result in reprimand, suspension, and/or dismissal from office according to Chapter 305 of the Code of Laws.

503.4 The Student Judiciary Council meetings are closed due to the necessity of confidentiality. Visitors coming to meetings must be approved by the Chief Justice prior to the meeting.

Chapter 504

Student Judiciary Council Rules of Procedure

504.1 The Student Judiciary Council will serve on Honor Council hearings and practice the procedure outlined in the Honor Code Manual.

504.2 The Student Judiciary Council will review excessive traffic appeals that constitute a Honor Code Violation.

504.3 The Student Judiciary Council will adjudicate hearings concerning the SGA Code of Laws, Constitution, and Honor Code Manual. Any person within the Samford Community (faculty, staff, student, or guest) may file a report if they feel that there is evidence to believe that the SGA Code of Laws, SGA Constitution, and Honor Code Manual has been violated with any person(s), group(s), or organization(s) affiliated by the SGA. Person(s), group(s), or organization(s) may be defined as, but not limited, to the following:

A. Executive officers, chairpersons, assistant chairpersons, committee members, candidates, officers-elect, office workers, and assistants.

B. All organizations meeting the conditions in Chapter 600 of the Code of Laws, relative to their involvement in an SGA activity or Code of Laws violation.

504.4 In order for there to be a subsequent hearing and resolution to a Code of Laws, Constitutional, and Honor Code Manual violation, all of the following must occur.

A. An official report must be obtained from the Student Conduct Coordinator and must be completed and signed by the person filing the report (plaintiff)

B. Once the investigation of the alleged Code of Laws, Constitutional or Honor Code violation is completed, the Student Conduct Coordinator shall appoint the members of a Hearing Panel. All information received by the Student Conduct Coordinator.

C. Upon receiving the information from the Student Conduct Coordinator, the Hearing Panel may meet in person or virtually for an initial assessment of the alleged violation. Such an initial assessment meeting shall be convened as soon as reasonably possible after the completion of the investigation and the delivery to the Hearing Panel of all related information in the possession, custody, or control of the Student Conduct Coordinator. Upon the request of a majority of the members of a Hearing Panel delivered to the Student Conduct Coordinator, further investigation of specific matters pertaining to the alleged violation may be performed.

D. Both the person(s) filing the report and the person(s) accused of the violation shall attend the hearing. Failure to attend a hearing will result in a decision being rendered on the evidence available and, consequently, will favor the attending party.

504.5 If a filed report demands clarification, elaboration, or merits further investigation, the Chief Justice and the Student Judiciary Council will be responsible for investigating other pertinent facts and data in order to ensure fairness in resolving the issue.

504.6 In order to ensure fundamental fairness, both the accuser and the accused shall be given no less than three (3) days' prior notice of a hearing. A hearing will take place no later than ten business days (2 weeks) after notification. Should either party require more time to prepare its case, then either party may make a personal appeal to the Chief Justice of the Student Judiciary Council for more time.

504.7 The hearing shall be attended by the Student Conduct Coordinator, Chief Justice, three Justices, two faculty staff Honor Code members, the accusing party, the defending party, and witnesses. Both parties may have an advisor present during the hearing.

504.8 A hearing will be rescheduled if fewer than three Justices, excluding the Chief Justice, are present at the hearing.

504.9 A recording of all hearings shall be made for the purpose of determining the validity of appeals as outlined in Chapter 404.11. Such record(s) shall be sealed after the final decision is reached. The sealed record(s) shall then be held by the SGA advisor until after the student is no longer enrolled, at which time the record(s) will be destroyed.

504.10 The hearing shall begin with only the Student Conduct Coordinator, the members of the Student Judiciary Council, Faculty and Staff honor Council Members, the accusing party, the defending party, their advisors, and the Chief Justice present. After appropriate introductions of all attending individuals, the Chief Justice shall ask the accusing party to present their evidence. The accused party will then be allowed to respond to and question the evidence. At any time, the Student Judiciary Council Justices and the Chief Justice may ask questions of either party.

504.11 Witnesses will be allowed into the hearing after the initial evidence and questioning has concluded. The Chief Justice and Student Conduct Coordinator may invite and dismiss witnesses at his/her discretion. The witnesses may be questioned at any time by the Student Conduct Coordinator, Justices, the Chief Justice, the defending party, and the accusing party.

504.12 After the Student Conduct Coordinator has determined that both parties have been given a fair opportunity to make presentations and the Justices have no further questions, all persons except the SJC Justices will be dismissed for the deliberations. The Chief Justice and Student Conduct Coordinator shall guide the deliberation process and conduct voting procedures upon the conclusion of the deliberation period. Upon the conclusion of a hearing and completion of its deliberations, a Hearing Panel may find a student "responsible" for a violation of the Honor Code and impose discipline only upon the vote of a majority of the Hearing Panel members participating in the hearing and deliberations.

504.13 Any decision rendered by the Hearing Panel concerning any violation associated with the Code of Laws, Student Government Association, or Honor Code Manual is final, except as follows. Review of a decision may be requested only by the President of the Student Government Association, the Dean of Students, Vice President for Student Affairs, and/or the President of Samford University. An appeals hearing can be recommended by those previously mentioned but may be granted only by the Chief Justice and Student Conduct Coordinator.

504.14 If the Student Conduct Coordinator determines that a Notice of Appeal has been timely submitted and sets forth one or more of the permissible grounds for an appeal, the Student Conduct Coordinator shall appoint an Appeal Panel consisting of (i) two (2) student Honor Council members and (ii) one (1) employee Honor Council Member. No member of an Appeal Panel shall have participated in the prior administration of the case.

Chapter 505

505.1 The Student Judiciary Council shall have the jurisdiction and power to impose sanctions resulting from violations within all titles and chapters of the Code of Laws, SGA Constitution, and the Honor Code Manual.

505.2 If a majority vote determines that a violation of the SGA Code of Laws, the SGA Constitution, and/or the Honor Code Manual has occurred, then the Justices of the Student Judiciary Council and the Chief Justice shall determine an appropriate sanction for the violation. The recommended sanction must be agreed upon by all of the Justices who determined that the violation occurred.

505.3 Sanctions resulting from violation within the SGA Constitution, Code of Laws, and the Undergraduate Honor Code include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Account Hold. A hold may be placed on a student's account until the student completes all performance-based discipline (e.g. community service).
2. Community Service. A student may be required to complete an assigned number of hours of prescribed service to the campus or larger community.
3. Degree Withholding. An earned degree may be withheld until performance-based discipline is completed.
4. Educational Programming. Educational activities such as seminars, research papers, reflection letters, or alcohol and drug education may be required, for which there could be an associated fee. The Hearing Panel shall specify the subject of the programming, the specifications for its preparation or performance, the person or persons to whom such activity is to be presented, and the time by which such obligations must be completed.
5. Expulsion. Enrollment status at the University may be terminated permanently and all campus privileges revoked. Expulsion requires the unanimous recommendation of the Hearing Panel.
6. Graduation Clearance. A student may be prohibited from participating in graduation activities, including commencement exercises, until all performance-based discipline is fully performed.
7. Honor Code Education. A student may be required to meet with a designated member of the Honor Council for a reflective and educational discussion of how the Honor Code guides and governs student conduct.
8. Loss of Housing. Occupancy of University housing by an individual student or by a student organization with designated University housing may be suspended or terminated.
9. Loss of Participation Privileges. Participation in University co-curricular activities or in a leadership role in a University-recognized student organization may be suspended or terminated.
10. Parental Notification. Subject to the requirements of the Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, its corresponding regulations, and other governing law, the parents or legal guardians of a student may be notified of a violation.
11. Probation. A formal written warning may be issued to a student, which may include contingent disciplinary actions if the student fails to comply with specified standards of conduct for a period of time (not to exceed 12 months).
12. Restitution. Reimbursement or other compensation for damages to or loss of property that is proximately caused by a violation of the Honor Code.
13. Revocation of Academic Credit. If a student is determined to have committed an act of academic misconduct in violation of the third tenet of the Honor Code in a course for which academic credit has already been awarded, such credit may be revoked retroactively, but only if the student is still enrolled as an undergraduate student of the University.

14. Skills Remediation Sessions. One or more meetings with a student Honor Council member intended to provide the responsible student with an improved understanding of academic integrity and the resources afforded to students to enhance their academic achievement.

15. Social Probation. A University-recognized student organization may be prohibited or restricted from having activities for its members, their guests, or the campus.

16. Suspension. Enrollment status at the University may be terminated for a specified period and all campus privileges are revoked. Suspension requires the recommendation of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Hearing Panel.

17. Written Reprimand. A formal, written reprimand specifying the violation is included in the student's education records.

18. Campus Restrictions. A directive that prohibits or limits a student's participation in certain campus activities or access to certain campus buildings and facilities.

Chapter 506

Conflicts of Interest

- 506.1 The Chief Justice shall appoint one Justice to serve on the Electoral Commission in the Spring Semester and Fall Semester during elections. The selected individual shall assist in the oversight of the elections process and ensure that all elections rules and regulations are followed. The appointed Justice may not serve on an SJC hearing regarding elections should a dispute arise.

TITLE VI

Finance Laws

Chapter 600

Office of the Treasurer

- 600.1 The SGA Treasurer shall be the disbursing agent for the Student Government.
- 600.2 The SGA Treasurer shall issue a budget report weekly to the SEB while school is in session. The report shall include the transactions and balances of all SGA accounts.

Chapter 601

Annual Budget Act

601. 1 After the Spring General Election, the newly elected SEB, after consultation with the out-going SEB and under the direction of the current SGA President, shall submit a proposed budget to the Senate at or before the last Senate meeting of the academic year.

- 601.2 The Senate shall pass the Annual Budget Act by the last Senate meeting of the academic year, so that it may be forwarded to the University administration for consideration.
- 601.3 The Annual Budget Act shall clearly and specifically designate the appropriation of all SGA monies. Each SAC committee shall have a separate account.
- 601.4 No funds shall be appropriated except by law.
- 601.5 The Annual Budget Act shall clearly separate the SGA Budget into the following sections:
1. SGA Admin
 2. Student Activities
 3. Senate
- 601.6 A regular appropriation shall be one which is made as part of the Annual Budget Act. A special appropriation shall be one which is made separately from the Annual Budget Act, to an organization or agency which is not a part of SGA. No special appropriation will be made to an organization not in full compliance with Title X.

Chapter 602
General Guidelines

- 602.1 Printed Materials
- All printed materials for any and all services, activities, programs, or events sponsored by a recipient of a regular appropriation from the SGA Budget must include the Samford University SGA logo. On printed materials, the SGA logo shall be no less than 1/30 the size of the area in which the logo is placed. One of the following areas on printed materials may be used to meet the logo requirement:
- (1) On the front of posters and flyers
 - (2) On the front or back cover of pamphlets and other publications
 - (3) Inside the front cover of publications
- 602.3 Postal service
- Metered postage service is provided for SGA by the Samford University Post Office. Only official business mail may be metered. Mail to be metered must bear the account number to be charged in the upper left corner. Postage stamps shall not be purchased with SGA funds.
- 602.4 Semester inventory
- The SGA Treasurer shall maintain an accurate inventory of all items of public property valued at $100.00 or more. Once each semester, he/she shall conduct an inventory to certify the location and condition of all such items.
- 602.5 The SGA Treasurer shall work with the Vice President for Senate to conduct a workshop explaining the provisions of the Senate Funding Guidelines for all student organizations that wish to request funds from the Senate Allocation Fund.

Chapter 603

Self-Generated Funds and Off-Campus Accounts

- 603.1 All monies generated by any agency, branch, or committee shall be deposited into the appropriate account by the SGA Treasurer. Under no conditions shall such funds be utilized by the agency, branch, or committee prior to deposit by the SGA Treasurer.
- 603.2 No SGA entity shall establish an off-campus account. All SGA monies are University funds and must be retained in a University account. Violation of this provision shall be grounds for impeachment under this Code, as well as a violation of University guidelines and subject to University disciplinary action.

Chapter 604

Finance Code Forms

- 604.1 All forms contained herein are required by law. Failure to use the form designated in this chapter may constitute a violation of the Finance Code.
- 604.2 Account Responsibility Form (bulleted list of expectations for those SGA members utilizing index codes).
- 604.3 A Student Organization can request funding from the currently allocated SGA Student Senate budget as long as they meet both the requirements of the Finance Committee and the Funding Checklist located in Appendix A.
- 604.4 If approved, the max amount a student organization can request is $2,500 a semester.

TITLE VII Election Laws

Chapter 700

Elections Clerk and Electoral Commission

- 700.1 The Electoral Commission shall oversee all SGA Elections and Referenda.
- 700.2 The Electoral Commission shall consist of the Senate Secretary, Senate Parliamentarian, and one representative from the Student Judiciary Council.
- 700.3 The Chief Justice shall appoint the Student Judiciary Council representative. The SJC representative shall not be the Chief Justice
- 700.4 The Senate Secretary shall serve as the Elections Clerk.

- 700.5 The Electoral Commission, with the assistance of the Director for Student Leadership and Involvement, shall be responsible for communicating with Technology Services to establish the online voting scheme and parameters. The Elections Clerk and the Director of Student Leadership and Involvement shall post an official ballot.
- 700.6 If a member of the Electoral Commission is temporarily unable to fulfill his/her duties due to illness or other factors, the Vice President for Senate shall designate an acting Commission member to serve until the Electoral Commission member is able to resume his/her duties. If the Elections Clerk resigns or is removed from office due to misconduct, the Vice President for the Senate shall designate an Acting Elections Clerk to serve until the Senate shall select a new Elections Clerk. If the Vice President for the Senate is a candidate, the SGA President shall designate an acting Clerk and/or Commission members.
- 700.7 All complaints from candidates must be filed to the Electoral Commission through the Elections Clerk via emailing lead@samford.edu. The Electoral Commission will address the issue with the candidate or candidates involved and try to satisfy the complaint.
- 700.8 The Elections Clerk and the Vice President for the Senate shall sign the form printed from the Online Voting System after it has been printed by the Director of Student Leadership and Involvement. After this form is printed and signed, the form shall be placed outside of the Office of Student Government Association. After an appropriate time, a copy of this form, declaring the legal winners of each race, shall be kept on file in the SGA Office.
- 700.9 All elections shall be the responsibility of the Elections Clerk in coordination with the Vice President for Senate. If the Vice President for Senate is a candidate, the Elections Clerk shall coordinate elections responsibilities with the President of the Student Government Association.

Chapter 701

Method of Voting and Polls

- 701.1 Voting for all Student Government Association elections shall fall under the rules and guidelines of the Online Voting Schemes and Parameters as established by the Elections Clerk and the Vice President for Senate.
- 701.2 Hours for the Online Voting Scheme shall be posted immediately and shall be at the discretion of the Elections Clerk, the Vice President for the Senate, and Computer Services. If the hours of voting are to be extended or shortened, publicity of this fact must have at least forty-eight (48) hour notice.

Chapter 702

Elections Regulations

- 702.1 No campaigning, except for signs in compliance Title IX, Chapter 702.6, shall be done in the University Computer Labs the day of the election or run-off election, and no candidate shall loiter within twenty (20) feet of said Computer Labs on the day of the election or run-off election, except to cast his/her ballot.
- 702.2 No candidate shall use a portable device to solicit votes.

- 702.3 A candidate shall neither deface nor remove another candidate's campaign materials.
- 702.4 No campaign materials shall be placed on trees, light posts, or any other areas that would result in the defacing of University property. All campaign materials placed in a University building must be approved by the appropriate building administrator.
- 702.5 No candidate shall place more than two campaign posters on the first and second floors of the University Center (not including the University Center Annex), and these two posters must have the approval of the University Administrator responsible for the University Center and be subject to University Center rules concerning posters.
- 702.6 Campaign signs shall not be larger than eleven (11) inches by seventeen (17) inches if they are to be placed inside any University building.
702. 7 All campaign materials (including wooden stakes, balloons, paper media, and chalk) must be removed within two days after the election or run-off election.
- 702.8 All purchased, donated, or borrowed materials and/or services used by the candidate in the campaign must have a fair market value placed on them. The candidate must maintain receipts for all campaign materials including donated and/or borrowed materials. The labor provided by a candidate's campaign workers and supporters shall not constitute a donated material or service, and shall have no financial value.
- 702.9 Campaign expenditures shall not exceed $150.00 for the Office of SGA President, and $100.00 for the Offices of Vice President for the Senate, and Vice President for Events. Campaign expenditures shall not exceed $50.00 for Senators or $100.00 for class officers.
- 702.10 Any candidate who believes in good faith that any provision of these regulations has been violated may file a complaint with the Electoral Commission. The complaint shall include the name of the accused candidate, the provision(s) violated and the name(s) of such person(s) who can substantiate the allegation. The Electoral Commission may impose the following penalties:
- | | |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| For violation of 702.4 - 702.8: | a fine of up to $20.00 |
| For violation of 702.1 and/or 702.2: | disqualification of the candidate, and/or a fine of up to $50.00 |
| For violation of 702.1 – 702.3: | disqualification of the candidate, and/or a fine of not less than $50.00, nor more than $ 100.00 |
- 702.11 A complaint must be filed within twenty-four hours of the alleged violation. No complaint may be submitted more than three days after the run-off election (or the General Election, if a run-off election is unnecessary). In order to be valid, all complaints must be presented in written form by a candidate to the Elections Clerk via emailing lead@samford.edu. Complaints filed to anyone other than the Elections Clerk will be considered invalid. All complaints and decisions are to remain confidential between the defendant, Electoral Commission, staff of The Office of Student Leadership and Involvement, and Student Judiciary Council. Failure to do so will be an honor code violation resulting in a hearing by the Honor Code Council of Samford University.

- 702.12 All decisions of the Electoral Commission may be appealed to the Student Judiciary Council.
- 702.13 No member of the Electoral Commission, the Elections Clerk, or the (SEB) shall publicly condemn or endorse a candidate running for office. Failure to adhere to this policy will result in a hearing by the Student Judiciary Council, possibly leading to removal from office.
- 702.14 Following all Student Government Association elections, the designated Student Affairs officer shall disclose the election results to the student body. The results disclosed must be from contested election races and must include the total number of votes for each candidate including percentages of votes that each candidate received during the elections.

Chapter 703
Spring General Election Schedule

- 703.1 The Spring General Election process shall begin the Monday two weeks prior to Spring Break, and shall be four and one-half weeks long, counted as one week from Monday to the following Sunday. Spring Break shall be counted as the third week of this process.
- 703.2 On the Monday two weeks before Spring Break, the Press Secretary, in coordination with the Elections Clerk, shall be responsible for posting publicity concerning the offices available and deadlines for the Spring General Election. The Application for Qualification as a Candidate shall be available online.
- 703.3 The person seeking to qualify shall read a copy of the necessary qualifications for each office and the Elections Regulations, as established by law, and shall indicate that he/she has received these items. Every student seeking an SEB position must have completed at least one (1) semester as a Samford University student. The student must also be full-time student as determined by University standards.
- 703.4 On the Thursday of the first week, at 5:00 p.m., the qualifying period shall end. This allows for enough time to confirm the information on each application by the Monday meeting. No one shall be allowed to submit an Application for Qualification or to sign up to run after this time.
- 703.5 On the Tuesday or Thursday of the second week a mandatory meeting shall be held at 10:00 a.m. At this meeting each person signed up to run for office shall be told for what offices he/she is qualified to run, each person qualified shall declare for which office he/she shall run, and all election regulations will be read and discussed.
- 703.6 If a potential candidate for office must miss the mandatory meeting, the absence must be pre-approved by the Elections Clerk. If an absence is pre-approved, the candidate must have a representative present at the meeting. If a candidate or his/her representative does not attend the mandatory meeting he/she will not be qualified to run for office. If the candidate feels that extenuating circumstances prevented him/her from attending or sending a designee, he/she may appeal to the Electoral Commission.
- 703.7 On the Monday of the fourth week, campaigning shall begin. An official ballot shall be posted by 10:00 a.m.

- 703.8 If during the fourth week, candidates shall give a speech, which shall be posted in the election schedule of events.
- 703.9 On the Monday of the fifth week, the Spring General Election shall be held, with hours set in coordination with Technology Services, as determined by the Electoral Commission. A run-off election, if necessary, shall be held on the following Wednesday.
- 703.10 Following the Spring General Election(s), the designated Student Affairs officer shall disclose the SEB election results to the student body. The results disclosed must be from contested SEB election races and must include the percentages of votes that each candidate received during the elections.
- 703.11 If a school holiday, weather emergency, or other event occurs during the Spring Elections process, which will adversely affect the Spring Election Elections schedule, the Elections Clerk, with the approval of the Vice President for Senate, or the SGA President if the Vice President for Senate is a candidate, shall have the power to alter the Elections Schedule in a manner, which shall solve any potential problems.
- 703.12 Each candidate may only seek one position in the Spring General Election.

Chapter 704
Fall Election Schedule

- 704.1 The Fall General Election process shall begin the Monday before Labor Day weekend and shall be two and one-half weeks long, counted as one week from Monday to the following Sunday.
- 704.2 On the Monday before Labor Day weekend, the Press Secretary in coordination with the Elections Clerk shall be responsible for posting publicity concerning the offices available and deadlines for the Fall General Election. The Application for Qualification as a candidate shall be available on that day online.
- 704.3 All applications with information regarding a candidate's GPA or other personal information must be shredded two weeks after the final election results are compiled.
- 704.4 The person seeking to qualify shall read a copy of the necessary qualifications for each office and the Elections Regulations, as established by law, and shall indicate that he/she has received these items. Qualifications for the office of Senator are found in Title III, Chapter 301; qualifications for a class office are found in Title V, Chapter 500.
- 704.5 On the Tuesday or Thursday of the second week a mandatory meeting shall be held at 10:00 AM. At this meeting each person signed up to run for office shall be told for what offices he/she is qualified to run.
- 704.6 If a potential candidate for office must miss the mandatory meeting, the absence must be pre-approved by the Elections Clerk. If an absence is pre-approved, the candidate must have a representative present at the meeting. If a candidate or his/her representative does not attend any mandatory meeting he/she will not be qualified to run for office If the candidate feels that extenuating circumstances prevented him/her from attending or sending a designee, he/she may appeal to the Electoral Commission.

- 704.7 On the Wednesday of the second week, campaigning shall begin. An official ballot shall be posted by 10:00 am.
- 704.8 On the Wednesday of the third week, the Fall General Election shall be held between 9:00 am and 5:00 p.m. A run-off election, if necessary, shall be held on the following Friday.
- 704.9 Regulations for the Fall Election shall follow the regulations put forth in Chapter 702 of this Title.
- 704.10 If a school holiday, weather emergency, or other event occurs during the Fall Elections process which will adversely affect the Fall Election Elections schedule, the Elections Clerk, with the approval of the Vice President for the Senate shall have the power to alter the Elections Schedule in a manner which shall solve any potential problems.
- 704.11 Each candidate may only seek one position in the Fall General Election.

Chapter 705

Homecoming Court Elections

- 705.1 All elections processes and procedures for the Homecoming elections shall be determined by the Student Activities Council and subject to approval by the Student Executive Board. Records of such processes shall be kept by the Vice President for Events and the Assistant Director of Student Activities and Events.
- 705.2 All responsibility for the Homecoming Court elections shall be given to the Vice President for Events.
- 705.3 The purpose of Homecoming Court elections and selection of Homecoming Queen and Honor Escort is to select good representatives of the University's honor, character, and spirit.

Chapter 706

Homecoming

- 706.1 Open nominations shall be held before Homecoming activities begin, or at the discretion of the Vice President for Events. Anyone wishing to nominate a student must have that student's permission to do so.
- 706.2 All currently enrolled students shall be allowed to vote once for candidates.
- 706.3 The student receiving the greatest number of votes from each of the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior classes shall be declared the winner.
- 706.4 All currently enrolled students may vote once for one senior male and one senior female to represent the student body as Homecoming Queen and Honor Escort.

- 706.5 Responsibility for Homecoming elections shall reside with the Vice President for Events. The dates for both nominations and elections will be determined by the Vice President for Events in conjunction with the Assistant Director of Student Activities and Events. Homecoming elections will fall under the online voting scheme, which will be specifically detailed by the Vice President for Events and the Assistant Director of Student Activities and Events in coordination with Technology Services.
