

ACTIVE REST

Jesus gives us rest from our divisions. He has broken down the walls of race, political party, and social status through his death and resurrection. And Jesus works today through us to expose bias, to heal hurts, to establish justice, and form bonds of love. But Jesus does the work, so as we co-labor we can truly rest in him.

This service was designed for worship in Hodges Chapel, a grand and ornate space where we sense the majesty and beauty of God and the rich history of the church. In this house of worship, we are prone to hush our voices and perceive in the spirit of Psalm 90 our limits as human beings. The style of the service, therefore, is primarily formal and traditional, yet festive incorporating the organ, piano, acoustic guitar and choral ensemble to voice our prayers and songs.

Genesis 3:1-13
Psalm 133
Ephesians 2:11-22

- Sermon: Active Rest \(Guest Preacher, Cameron Thomas\)
- Call to Worship:

The God of creation makes us one in body!
Let us join hearts and voices in praise of the Lord!
The God of Christ makes us one in the Spirit!
Let us join hearts and voices in praise of the Lord!

Let us worship the eternal God,
the source of love and life, who creates us.
Let us worship Jesus Christ,
the risen one, who lives among us.
Let us worship the Spirit,
the holy fire, who renews us.
To the one true God be praise
in all times and places,
through the grace of Jesus Christ.

- God's Greeting:

May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

TEXT: 2 Corinthians 13:14, NIV

- Prayer of Adoration:

We praise you for creating this world in all beauty,
for redeeming the world through Christ, our Lord,
and for sending us the gift of your Spirit
to encourage, instruct, and sustain us.
We long for your Spirit to work among us now,
to inspire our praise, to challenge us with your truth,
and to equip us for service in your world. Amen.

SOURCE: The Worship Sourcebook, 2nd Ed. (Baker Books, Grand Rapids, MI), S.1.2.2.

- Words of Assurance:

You are a chosen race,
a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people,
in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.
Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people;
once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

People of God,
all of us together have received God's mercy in Christ.
In Christ we are forgiven, redeemed,
and made to be a community united in faith.
Thanks be to God.

- Responsive litany of the Prayer of St. Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love.
Where there is injury, pardon.
Where there is doubt, faith.
Where there is despair, hope.
Where there is darkness, light.
Where there is sadness, joy.
O divine Master,
grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
Amen.

BENEDICTION:

May the Lord bless you and keep you;
May the Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you.

May God give you the grace not to sell yourself short,
grace to risk something big for something good,
grace to remember that the world is now too dangerous
for anything but truth,
and too small for anything but love.

May God take your minds and think through them;
May God take your lips and speak through them;
and may God take your hearts and set them on fire.

Amen.
