

Praying the Headlines

"The prayer of a righteous person is powerful in what it can achieve." —James 5:16

Let us pray.

“

Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed.

The prayer of the righteous person is powerful in what it can achieve.

James 5:16

*Almighty God, our perfect healer,
we are sinners, in need of your mercy and grace.
Our only hope of righteousness is in Jesus.
Cleanse us now of our sins;
clothe us in your righteousness;
empower our prayers for your glory.*

We pray for the world.

WHO reports biggest one-day rise in coronavirus cases to date

JUNE 22, 2020 / 7:14 AM / AP

NEW YORK CITY

MIAMI

Largest rise in COVID-19 cases since May 1

03:41

CORONAVIRUS THE RACE TO RESPOND

CBS THIS MORNING

CONCERNING WEEKEND SPIKE
U.S. REPORTS LARGEST INCREASE IN CASES SINCE MAY 1

OFFICER FOR 'APPARENT CHOKEHOLD' INJURIES AT PROTESTS DRAW SCRUTINY TO USE OF 7:08 / 73°

World

In Africa, toppling statues is just a first step in addressing racism

"The debate over statues is always a debate about more than statues," says Professor Achille Mbembe. It's about "where we want to go."

Inhaled version of
'promising' COVID-19
treatment to be trialled

We pray for the Church.

Most US Pastors Speak Out in Response to George Floyd's Death

Survey finds many still worry discussing race is "too political."

DAVID ROACH | JUNE 16, 2020 8:11 AM

Image: Melissa Sue Gerrits/Getty Images

Most Churches Have Chosen Not to Return to In-Person Services, Survey Finds

Amanda Casanova | ChristianHeadlines.com Contributor | Wednesday, June 17, 2020

11K  Tweet

 Share

18

Comments

 Print  Email

#church #top headlines #Coronavirus

A new survey says that most churches have not returned to in-person services, and many are uncertain about the future of worship gatherings.

The survey is from the Wheaton Billy Graham Center's Send Institute, Exponential, and the Association of Related Churches. Some 767 responses were recorded for the study.

In a key finding, the survey showed that most churches have the potential to meet for in-person services, but 67 percent have not.

Black and Latino Churches Offer Prayers, Hope and Coronavirus Testing

A public health program takes free tests and fellowship to communities in New York that have been devastated by Covid-19.

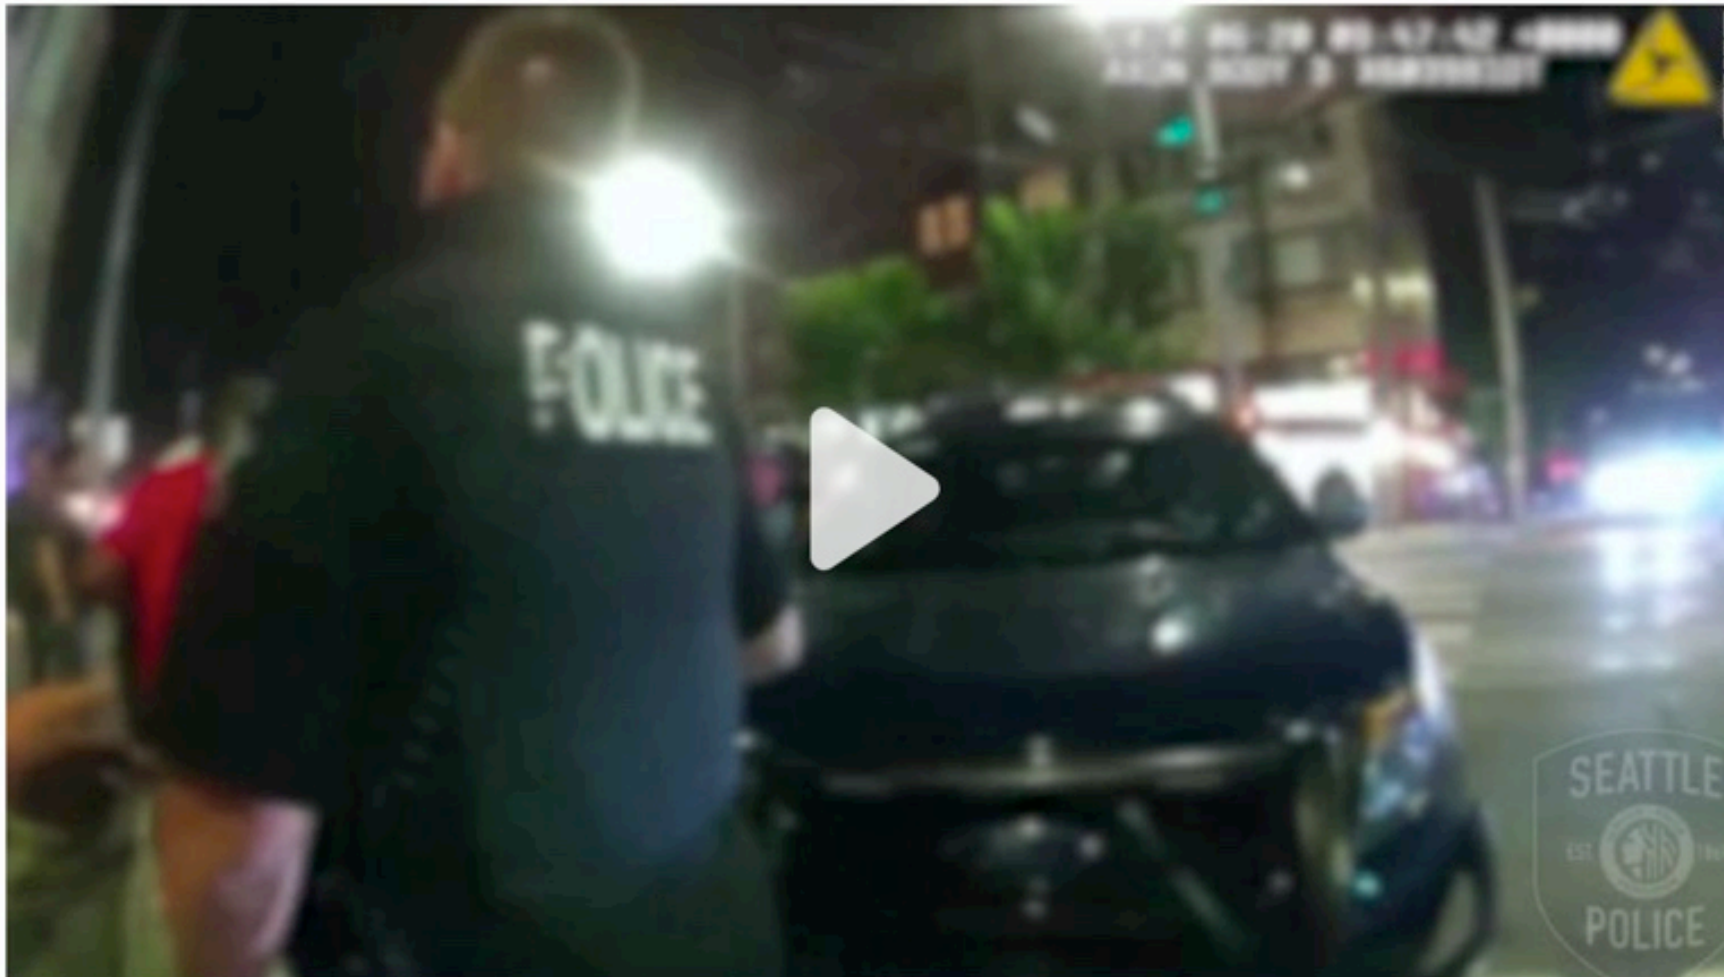

We pray for the helpers.

Shooting in Seattle protest zone leaves one dead. Police say 'violent crowd' denied them entry

By Kevin Flower, Artemis Moshtaghi, Elle Reeve and Susannah Cullinane, CNN

🕒 Updated 8:36 AM ET, Sun June 21, 2020

More from CNN

Sporting legend
in artificial com
horrific...

Pelosi's masks
fashion trend

Ads by Google

Report this ad

Why this ad?

What ICU doctors have learned about COVID-19 – and how they're prepared for a 2nd wave

From keeping patients off ventilators to trusting that their PPE will keep them safe.

All News Kids

Charity Dishes Out $1,000 Checks to Hundreds of Teens So They Can Uplift Anyone They Want to Support

By McKinley Corbley - Jun 19, 2020

We pray for our community.

AMERICANS COMMEMORATE JUNETEENTH

JUNETEENTH

Juneteenth celebrations take on special new meaning after weeks of racial unrest

Jun. 19, 2020 - 4:12 - Fox News contributor Lawrence Jones and the 'Outnumbered' panel reflect on the significance of the holiday.

For video troubleshooting and help click here.

Growing concerns

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Will Boyd kneels at the grave of a family member who died after contracting the coronavirus Saturday in Montgomery. He says his family has lost multiple family members to COVID-19.

More people losing loved ones as COVID-19 cases increase

The Associated Press

MONTGOMERY — William Boyd was at the funeral Saturday morning for a relative who had died after contracting the new coronavirus when he got the call with the news. His brother had also passed away from COVID-19.

"The virus is real. It's real. If they don't know it's real, they can come and walk with me to the cemetery," said Boyd, the owner of a Montgomery car lot.

Alabama and much of the Deep South are seeing a spike in coronavirus cases as some have stopped heeding warnings of the virus, alarming public health officials and people who have lost loved ones because of COVID-19. Over the past two weeks, Alabama had the

See CORONAVIRUS, Page 3A

MN officials announce three potential plans for 2020-2021 school year

Photo: WDIO File

We now invite you to offer your personal prayer requests to the Lord.

*For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous,
and his ears are open to their prayer.*

1 Peter 3:12

Go in peace.

“

*“Give thanks to the Lord, because he is good,
because his faithful love endures forever.”*

—Psalm 107:1

